November 2012 Geography Paper 2 Memorandum:

Decolonization and Conflict Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2017-06-15 Insurgency based irregular warfare typifies armed conflict in the post Cold War age For some years now western and other governments have struggled to contend with ideologically driven guerrilla movements religiously inspired militias and systematic targeting of civilian populations Numerous conflicts of this type are rooted in experiences of empire breakdown Yet few multi empire studies of decolonisation s violence exist Decolonization and Conflict brings together expertise on a variety of different cases to offer new perspectives on the colonial conflicts that engulfed Europe s empires after 1945 The contributors analyse multiple forms of colonial counter insurgency from the military engagement of anti colonial movements to the forced removal of civilian populations and the application of new doctrines of psychological warfare Contributors to the collection also show how insurgencies their propaganda and methods of action were inherently transnational and inter connected The resulting study is a vital contribution to our understanding of contested decolonization It emphasises the global connections at work and reveals the contemporary resonances of both anti colonial insurgencies and the means devised to counter them It is essential reading for students and scholars of empire decolonization and asymmetric warfare Dictators Without Borders Alexander A. Cooley, John Heathershaw, 2017-02-07 A penetrating look into the unrecognized and unregulated links between autocratic regimes in Central Asia and centers of power and wealth throughout the West Weak corrupt and politically unstable the former Soviet republics of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan are dismissed as isolated and irrelevant to the outside world But are they This hard hitting book argues that Central Asia is in reality a globalization leader with extensive involvement in economics politics and security dynamics beyond its borders Yet Central Asia s international activities are mostly hidden from view with disturbing implications for world security Based on years of research and involvement in the region Alexander Cooley and John Heathershaw reveal how business networks elite bank accounts overseas courts third party brokers and Western lawyers connect Central Asia s supposedly isolated leaders with global power centers The authors also uncover widespread Western participation in money laundering bribery foreign lobbying by autocratic governments and the exploiting of legal loopholes within Central Asia Riveting and important this book exposes the global connections of a troubled region that must no longer be ignored America's Moment Rework America, 2015-06-15 It is time for a new conversation Amid the biggest economic transformation in a century the challenge of our time is to make sure that all Americans benefit from the wave of digital revolutions around the world that have permeated and upended modern life Yet today s economic arguments seem stuck We need a new vision of a hopeful future and a new action agenda So many Americans are uncertain about the future How can there be so many paths to opportunity with so few people traveling them As a nation we have to understand what is required to help Americans succeed now and how to prepare our country for what comes next We have been here before A hundred years ago America experienced the greatest economic transformation and technological revolution in its history The transformation of the past twenty years as the world has moved through the information era into the digital age has turned our life and work upside down once again It is a time of tremendous change but also of tremendous possibility Rework America is a group of American leaders who know from experience the challenges we face and the potential solutions In America s Moment they suggest a practical agenda for an exciting future It is illustrated by people who are already showing the way and includes actions Americans can take today in their own communities preparing people to succeed using the reach of the Internet and data to innovate jobs and to reach new markets all over the world using technology to match employers and workers and transitioning to a no collar working world neither blue collar nor white collar Set against the history of how Americans succeeded once before in remaking their country America s Moment is about the future It describes how the same forces of change technology and a networked world can become tools that can open opportunity to everyone

Defence Planning and Uncertainty Stephan Frühling, 2014-04-24

How can countries decide what kind of military forces they need if threats are uncertain and history is full of strategic surprises This is a question that is more pertinent than ever as countries across the Asia Pacific are faced with the military and economic rise of China Uncertainty is inherent in defence planning but different types of uncertainty mean that countries need to approach decisions about military force structure in different ways This book examines four different basic frameworks for defence planning and demonstrates how states can make decisions coherently about the structure and posture of their defence forces despite strategic uncertainty It draws on case studies from the United States Australian and New Zealand each of which developed key concepts for their particular circumstances and risk perception in Asia Success as well as failure in developing coherent defence planning frameworks holds lessons for the United States and other countries as they consider how best to structure their military forces for the uncertain challenges of the future

approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many trees Mapping migration governance and the dispersion of authority in Europe by Lisa Marie Borrelli Rebecca Mavin and Giorgia Trasciani CHAPTER 3 Policing Migrants in Transit and Upon Arrival The Bordering Tactic of Integration in Austria and Germany by Olivia Johnson PART B Regulations Suspension of Human Rights CHAPTER 4 Borders Exception and Sovereignty Australia s Migration Policies as Instruments of Suspension of Human Rights and International Obligations by Ana Carolina Macedo Abreu CHAPTER 5 Power and Sandwiched Sovereignty Nepali Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries by Hari KC CHAPTER 6 The Body and Embodied Experiences in the British Asylum System Developing a Conceptual Perspective by Rebecca Mavin CHAPTER 7 Eritrean Unaccompanied Refugee Minors in The Netherlands Wellbeing and Health by Anna de Haan Yodit Jacob Trudy Mooren and Winta Ghebream PART C Migrants Strategies and Identities CHAPTER 8 Social Inclusion Processes for unaccompanied minors in the city of Palermo Fostering Autonomy through a New Social Inclusion Model by Roberta Lo Bianco and Georgia Chondrou CHAPTER 9 Urban Resistances and Migrant Activism Challenging the Border Regime in Madrid City by Ana Santamarina and Almudena Cabezas CHAPTER 10 RefConnect A Mobile Social Network for Refugees by Evdokia Kogia Styliani Liberopoulou Nikolaos Alamanos Vasilis Pierros and Christos Michalakelis CHAPTER 11 Halo Halo Nostalgia and Navigating Life for Overseas Filipino Workers OFW s in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia by Simeon S Magliveras

Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,2012 The Center Cannot Hold Jenna N. Hanchey,2023-07-07 In The Center Cannot Hold Jenna N Hanchey examines the decolonial potential emerging from processes of ruination and collapse Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in rural Tanzania at an internationally funded NGO as it underwent dissolution Hanchey traces the conflicts between local leadership and Western paternalism as well as the unstable subjectivity of Western volunteers including the author who are unable to withstand the contradictions of playing the dual roles of decolonializing ally and white savior She argues that Western institutional and mental structures must be allowed to fall apart to make possible the emergence of decolonial justice Hanchey shows how through ruination privileged subjects come to critical awareness through repeated encounters with their own complicity providing an opportunity to delink from and oppose epistemologies of coloniality After things fall apart Hanchey posits the creation of decolonial futures depends on the labor required to imagine impossible futures into being Land Grabbing in Africa Fassil

Demissie,2017-10-02 The sign that Africa is on Sale has been appearing with regular frequency in major newspaper accounts across the world indicating that large amounts expanses of Africa s rich farmlands are being sold to transnational investors usually on long term leases at a rate not seen in decades indeed not since the colonial period Transnational and national economic actors from various business sectors oil and auto mining and forestry food and chemical bioenergy etc are eagerly acquiring or declaring their intention to acquire large areas of land on which to build maintain or extend large scale extractive and agro industrial enterprises to help secure their own food and energy needs into the future This book provides a critical appraisal of the growing phenomenon of land grabbing in Africa Far from being a technical issue associated good governance the problem of land grabbing by transnational corporation and states is a serious threat for the food security of millions of Africans and is undoubtedly one of the great challenges of our time for development on the continent The case studies illustrate that African states are also complicit in the massive land grabbing by actively participating in isolated development while excluding the local communities The case studies reveal key features that characterize how the global land grab plays out in specific localities in Africa This book was published as a special issue of African Identities

India China L.H.M. Ling, Adriana Erthal Abdenur, Payal Banerjee, Nimmi Kurian, Mahendra P. Lama, Li Bo, 2021-03-11

Challenging the Westphalian view of international relations which focuses on the sovereignty of states and the inevitable potential for conflict the authors from the Borderlands Study Group reconceive borders as capillaries enabling the flow of material cultural and social benefits through local communities nation states and entire regions By emphasizing local agency and regional interdependencies this metaphor reconfigures current narratives about the China India border and opens a new perspective on the long history of the Silk Roads the modern BCIM Initiative and dam construction along the Nu River in China and the Teesta River in India Together the authors show that positive interaction among people on both sides of a border generates larger cross border communities which can pressure for cooperation and development India China offers the hope that people divided by arbitrary geo political boundaries can circumvent race gender class religion and other social barriers to form more inclusive institutions and forms of governance

Protection and Empire Lauren Benton, Adam Clulow, Bain Attwood, 2017-11-02

For five centuries protection has provided a basic currency for organising relations between polities Protection underpinned sprawling tributary systems permeated networks of long distance trade reinforced claims of royal authority in distant colonies and structured treaties Empires made routine use of protection as they extended their influence projecting authority over old and new subjects forcing weaker parties to pay them for safe conduct and sometimes paying for it themselves The result was a fluid politics that absorbed both the powerful and the weak while giving rise to institutions and jurisdictional arrangements with broad geographic scope and influence This volume brings together leading scholars to trace the long history of protection across empires in Asia Africa Australasia Europe and the Americas Employing a global lens it offers an innovative way of understanding the formation and growth of empires and uncovers new dimensions of the relation of empires to regional and global order Arctic Shipping Frédéric Lasserre, Olivier Faury, 2019-09-05 This book considers both the present state of Arctic shipping and possible future trends with reference to the various sectors of maritime transportation cruise tourism container traffic and bulk shipping Ports are analysed as tools that support the strategies of coastal states to foster the development of resource extraction enhance the attractiveness of Arctic shipping lanes and enable the control of maritime activities through coast guard deployment The aim of this book is to draw a picture of the trends of Arctic shipping How is traffic evolving in Canada's Arctic or along the Northern Sea Route Are there significant differences between bulk and container shipping segments when considering the Arctic market How are the ports and the hinterland developing and what are the strategies behind those How is the legal framework shaping the evolution of maritime transportation The contributors to this book consider all of these questions and more as they map out the prospects for Arctic shipping and analyse in detail the development of Arctic shipping as a result of multi variable interactions This book will be key reading for industry professionals and post graduate students alike Saving More Than Seeds Catherine Phillips, 2016-04-01 Saving More Than Seeds advances understandings of seed people relations with particular focus on seed saving The practice of reusing and exchanging seeds provides foundation for food production and allows humans and seed to adapt together in dynamic socio-natural conditions But the practice and its practitioners are easily taken for granted even as they are threatened by neoliberalisation Combining original ethnographic research with investigation of an evolving corporate seed order this book reveals seed saving not only as it occurs in fields and gardens but also as it associates with genebanking genetic engineering intellectual property rights and agri-food regulations Drawing on diverse social sciences literatures Phillips illustrates ongoing practices of thinking feeling and acting with seeds raising questions about what seed people relations should accomplish and how different ways of relating might be pursued to change collective futures
