Translation and Circulation of Migration Literature Stephanie Schwerter,Katrina Brannon,2022-07-22 In the field of Translation Studies no book length work in English has yet been dedicated to the translation and circulation of migration literature The authors of this volume seek to contribute to filling this gap through a detailed study of texts belonging to a variety of literary genres and engaging with the phenomenon of migration in different parts of the world Not only will the challenges met by translators be discussed but the different ways in which the translated texts travel from one cultural sphere to another will also be explored The focus lies on the themes migration and politics migration and society as well as the experience of migration in words music and images

Sex Pots Paul Mathieu,2003 Over the past twenty years debates about pornography have raged within feminism and beyond Throughout the 1970s feminists increasingly addressed the problem of men s sexual violence against women and many women reduced the politics of men s power to questions about sexuality By the 1980s these questions had become more and more focused on the issue of pornography now a metaphor for the menace of male power Collapsing feminist politics into sexuality and sexuality into pornography has not only caused some of the deepest splits between feminists but made it harder to think clearly about either sexuality or pornography indeed about feminist politics more generally This provocative collection by well known feminists surveys these arguments and in particular asks why recent feminist debates about sexuality keep reducing to questions of pornography

The English Emblem Tradition Alan R. Young,1988-01-01 This volume of the Index Emblematicus deals with three early seventeenth century works Remaines of a Greater Worke Concerning Britaine by William Camden The Mirrour of Maiestie by H G and Otto van Veen s Amorum Emblemata Camden s Remaines is noteworthy for using imprese in language as pictorial image for mixing imprese with cognizance and for considering impresa itself as the identity of the individual rather than as a general principle H G s Mirrour is remarkable in that every one of its emblems consists of a personal heraldic coat of arms of an identified statesman twinned with a pictorial engraving motto and epigram on an opposite page Van Veen's Emblemata enters literary history as a volume of emblem pictures consecrated to secular love experience encapsulating some of the conventions of the sonnet sequences and having a strong influence on religious love literature Each book is reproduced with critical and bibliographic introductions translation of the poems and mottos descriptions of the emblems and indices to the visual and verbal components of the works
