

Advantages Of Computer Invented Animation

Walt Disney animation

Hand drawn vs. Computerised

Walt Disney, a household name for kids and adults alike, the power house of kid s animation! This was up till its last drawn animation of The Lion King in 1994, when other animators like Pixar and DreamWorks came up with more modern computerised 3D films, such as Toy Story in 1995; Ants in 1998 and Shrek in 2001. All these animations had box office success and all were computer generated.

While Disney was producing hand drawn animation like Hercules, Brother Bear and Fantasia they were falling behind and losing vast amounts of money. The fact that not one of these movies made it into the top of the charts fuelled rumours that they might close down the animation section.

A joint venture

Andrew Millstein, the president of Disney Animation Studios, joined the company in 1997 as a production executive in the modern pictures group. In 2001 Millstein was named the senior Vice ... Show more content on Helpwriting.net ...

It was this new found ownership that gave them back the freedom to think and use their imagination. Disney had the notion of making films that is meant for not only little boys and girls but once again for the whole family to enjoy.

Big Hero leadership

Late in the Filming of Big Hero 6, a different team was brought in to assist with the films creative leadership, a strategy that worked for Disney, as everyone was now working together. This meant that they could take collective ownership and were no longer competing with each other. This gave new meaning to the much used phrase thinking outside the box by putting their trust in the creative powers of their animators. People were once again free to utilise their imagination to touch and ignite the imagination of the
