Dark days of winter can be the coziest

By Sarah Feldberg

The residents at the Oakland Zoo are creatures of the sun. During the brief days of winter, they seek it.

"You'll see them basking in the morning as soon as there's a ray of sun," says Angela Gilmore, executive director for the zoo's California Trail exhibit.

The zoo's birds, bled-headed parrots aren't just after the pleasure of warm light on a cold day. UV rays on their wings — which cover around 90 percent of their bodies — help bacteria and keep them healthy. Meanwhile, as they say, in the birds' best discomfort.

Of course, there's less of it this time of year, when darkness nibbles at mornings and small, chilly evenings, while, in the sun, San Francisco's skyward residents start shivering before 5 p.m. End-of-day commuters catch ferries in the dark and take buses through the blackness like in hands of light.

Is longer school day solution for vulnerable kids?

By Audrey Brown

California schools are about to embark on an ambitious and expensive gamble to try to close the achievement gap and address gun-borne learning losses. Expanded the school day by three hours and the school year by 30 days. For vulnerable students who are struggling to keep up with their peers.

Schools can spend the additional time on any activities outside regular school hours that contribute to students' learning and well-being. Some districts, like Franklin-McKinley in San Jose, already have implemented the program, and many have opted for high-dose tutoring and small-group instruction.

State officials expect districts will have fully implemented the program by 2025.

'Terrifying': Two dead, 12 injured; Eureka area sees damage, outages

By Julie Johnson, Jessica Flores, J.D. Morris and Jill Tucker

RIO DELL, Humboldt County — Homes tilted off foundations, windows shattered, pipes burst and debris covered floors after a powerful earthquake rocked coastal Northern California Tuesday. Fire trucks trapped in the firehouse and the limited number of ambulances unable to respond to urgent calls for help.

Two people who suffered medical emergencies during or right after the earthquake died. The preliminary 6.4 magnitude quake struck at 2:34 a.m., about 10 miles from Ferndale in Humboldt County, according to the U.S. Geological Survey. The town of about 1,300 people is just south of Eureka about 200 miles from the Oregon border.

Emergency crews responded as more than 20 aftershocks shook the area.

The two people who died, ages 72 and 63, suffered the medical emergencies, including a cardiac incident, during or just after the temblor. Emergency responders couldn't get to them in time because the few ambulances located in the area were already dispatched elsewhere, said Humboldt County Sheriff William Hornall.

Another 12 were injured in the earthquake, including po-
