Nothing to Envy Barbara Demick, 2009-12-29 An eye opening account of life inside North Korea a closed world of increasing global importance hailed as a tour de force of meticulous reporting The New York Review of Books with a new afterword that revisits these stories and North Korea more broadly in 2022 in the wake of the pandemic NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD FINALIST In this landmark addition to the literature of totalitarianism award winning journalist Barbara Demick follows the lives of six North Korean citizens over fifteen years a chaotic period that saw the death of Kim Il sung the rise to power of his son Kim Jong il the father of Kim Jong un and a devastating famine that killed one fifth of the population Demick brings to life what it means to be living under the most repressive regime today an Orwellian world that is by choice not connected to the Internet where displays of affection are punished informants are rewarded and an offhand remark can send a person to the gulag for life She takes us deep inside the country beyond the reach of government censors and through meticulous and sensitive reporting we see her subjects fall in love raise families nurture ambitions and struggle for survival One by one we witness their profound life altering disillusionment with the government and their realization that rather than providing them with lives of abundance their country has betrayed them Praise for Nothing to Envy Provocative offers extensive evidence of the author s deep knowledge of this country while keeping its sights firmly on individual stories and human details The New York Times Deeply moving The personal stories are related with novelistic detail The Wall Street Journal A tour de force of meticulous reporting The New York Review of Books Excellent humanizes a downtrodden long suffering people whose individual lives hopes and dreams are so little known abroad San Francisco Chronicle The narrow boundaries of our knowledge have expanded radically with the publication of Nothing to Envy Elegantly structured and written it is a groundbreaking work of literary nonfiction John Delury Slate At times a page turner at others an intimate study in totalitarian psychology The Philadelphia Inquirer

Summary of Barbara Demick's Nothing to Envy Everest Media, 2022-03-05T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 North Korea is a country that has fallen out of the developed world The country is covered in darkness which is something that teenagers love 2 In the late 1990s North Koreans would meet in the dark to escape the prying eyes of the authorities The girl would lead her boyfriend to a hot spring resort outside of town where the grounds were poorly maintained but the trees were still beautiful 3 When I met Mi ran she was a 31 year old woman living in South Korea She had defected six years earlier I wanted to know what life was like for defectors in North Korea so I interviewed her 4 In 2004 Mi ran was a kindergarten teacher in a mining town in North Korea She was working toward a graduate degree in education She had a dream about her boyfriend a South Korean civilian military employee who had married her the previous year Nothing to Envy Barbara Demick, 2013-05-01 WINNER OF THE 2010 SAMUEL JOHNSON PRIZE FOR NON FICTION What if the world imagined by George Orwell in Nineteen Eighty four was real What if everything around you was black and white except for the red letters on propaganda signs Where spies like Orwell's thought Police studied your facial expressions during political rallies to make sure you were sincere in your expressions and your thoughts If you couldn't turn the dials of your radio away from the government station In fact there is such a place North Korea the only country not connected to the Internet by choice Ruled over by a dictator visible only in carefully controlled images it's a mysterious even sinister country But it's also a place where 22 million people live work and dream of a different life Journalist Barbara Demick spent a decade covering North Korea's strange politics and regulations then one day she met a young woman defector Mi ran who told her about growing up there about the cinema she used to go to when the country still had electricity and about the teenage romance which blossomed there through Mi ran's story Demick glimpsed another more human side of North Korea In Nothing to Envy Demick re-traces the life of Mi ran and of five other North Koreans taking us into the heart of an elusive society We see her subjects fall in love nurture ambitions and struggle with survival and betrayal their stories form a haunting portrait of a bizarre society and the cost it exacts on its citizens
