A Court Painter and His Circle Catherine Mary Charlton Bearne, 1914      Wheel of Samsara - A Complete Circle Arun K. Potdar, 2018-03-16 Captain Sameer unwittingly adopts the Kierkegaard Nietzsche Dostoyesky championed Existential Philosophy as a guide for pursuing happiness He feels it suited his circumstances rather well Handsome intelligent and somewhat exotic looking young man from India discovers the Americana living and begins his life's journey with only one thought in mind Make best of what you got and take best that is available He considers hedonism without attachments as the best option to achieve a perpetual happiness However destiny had other plans for him and he discovers Nirvana in the jungles of Congo amidst the killing fields of brutal civil war      Learn to Speak Like the French Arnold Borton, Henri Mauffrais, 2010 A book that will make you able to understand what you are told and give an appropriate answer in the most frequent situations of daily life      Prague Linguistic Circle Papers Eva Hajicová, Tomas Hoskovec, 1999 This volume is the third one of the revived series of Travaux which was the well known international book series of the classical Prague Linguistic Circle published in the years 1929-39 The tradition of the Circle still attracts attention in broad circles of European and American linguistics      Prague Linguistic Circle Papers Eva Haji?ová, Jiri Hana, Petr Sgall, Thomas Hoskovec, 2002 The fourth volume of the revived series of Travaux du Cercle linguistique de Prague brings three contributions by J Vachek O Le ka and V Skali ka connected with the classical period of the Prague School as well as papers delivered at the conference Function Form and Meaning Bridges and Interfaces held in Prague in 1998 Some of the contributions concern issues of grammar of different languages including a syntactic annotation of a large Czech text corpus a comparison of Hebrew conditionals with English a characterization of the typology of the Indo European verb A further part focuses on topic focus articulation information sentence structure functional sentence perspective with a concept of perspective introduced as close to but distinct from topic and with three different viewpoints on the semantics of information structure Two broader essays on the nature of language are then presented while the last section analyzes the structure of free verse The volume represents a contribution to the continuing fruitful interaction between the work of the Prague School and the more and less closely related approaches of linguists in other countries      The Christian Observer, 1814      Secularisation and the Leiden Circle Mark Somos, 2011-09-09 This book shows how a group of early seventeenth century writers excluded theologically grounded argument from a wide range of disciplines from the natural sciences to international relations Somos uses richly contextualised portraits of Scaliger Heinsius Cunaeus and Grotius to develop a new model of secularisation as a contingent cumulative and incomplete process with some unintended consequences Facing severe conflict the Leiden Circle realised that rival claims that staked their truth content and validity on religious belief were ultimately irreconcilable Gradually they removed such claims from acceptable discourse contributing to the comprehensive secularisation that defines modernity If blindness to religious claims has become definitive of modern politics Somos concludes recollecting its historical complexity and contingency is essential for overcoming some of its failures

Aesthetics of Transgression Gladys M. Francis, 2017-06-15 Odious Caribbean Women and the Palpable Aesthetics of Transgression examines the methods through which the works of French Caribbean women resist hedonistic conceptions of pleasure art for art's sake aestheticism and commodification through representations of uglified spaces transgressive deglamorified women's bodies in pain and explicit corporeal and sexual behaviors Gladys M. Francis offers an original approach through her reading together of the literary visual and performing arts as well as traditional Caribbean dance music and oral practices to arrive at a transregional trans Caribbean and transatlantic trans genre with regard to forms of text and transdisciplinary conversation in Francophone studies postcolonial studies and cultural studies This interweaving is illustrated through the artistic engagements of artists such as Ina C. Saire Maryse Condé Sylvaine Dampierre Fabienne Kanor L. Nablou B. Atrice M. Lina Gisèle Pineau Simone Schwarz Bart and Miriam Warner Vieyra How can we investigate theoretically or critically the aesthetically displeasing found in depictions of odious female protagonists or female performers What is the aesthetic value of transgressional women's bodies This book presents novel tools to understand how these women artists mark and re-instate embodied trauma survival and resistance into history It posits that cultural performances can disrupt a culture as text ethnocentrism for these works provide the means to expose the tangible aesthetics through which the body becomes an archive that bears the psychological physical and structural suffering This project also demonstrates the ways through which the corporeal realm offered by these transgressive works through explicit female perspectives on sex love and gender challenges our moral sensibilities works to sabotage the voyeuristic gaze and stimulates a new methodology for reading the women's body It focuses on the complex layers of identity formation and bodily representations with respect to issues of sex consumerism commodification violence gender and women studies and ethics and moral issues

Thought Ann Thomson, 2008-07-03 The church in danger latitudinarians socinians and hobbists Animal spirits and living fibres Mortalists and materialists Journalism exile and clandestinity Mid-eighteenth century materialism Epilogue Some consequences Phantom Armies of the Night Claude Lecouteux, 2011-08-16 An exploration of the many forms of the ancient myth of the Wild Hunt and its influence in pagan and early Christian Europe Recounts the myriad variations of this legend from the Cursed Huntsman and King Herla to phantom armies and vast processions of sinners and demons Explains how this belief was an integral part of the pagan worldview and was thus employed by the church to spread Christian doctrine Reveals how the secret societies of medieval Europe reenacted these ghostly processions for soul travel and prophecies of impending death Once upon a time a phenomenon existed in medieval Europe that continuously fueled local lore during the long winter nights a strange and unknown troop could be heard passing outside over the land or through the air Anyone caught by surprise in the open fields or depths of the woods would see a bizarre procession of demons giants hounds ladies of the night soldiers and knights some covered in blood and others carrying their heads beneath their arms

This was the Wild or Infernal Hunt the host of the damned the phantom army of the night a theme that still inspires poets writers and painters to this day Millennia older than Christianity this pagan belief was employed by the church to spread their doctrine with the shapeshifters and giants of the pagan nightly processions becoming sinners led by demons seeking out unwary souls to add to their retinues Myth or legend it represents a belief that has deep roots in Europe particularly Celtic and Scandinavian countries The first scholar to fully examine this myth in each of its myriad forms Claude Lecouteux strips away the Christian gloss and shows how the Wild Hunt was an integral part of the pagan worldview and the structure of their societies Additionally he looks at how secret societies of medieval Europe reenacted these ghostly processions through cult rituals culminating in masquerades and carnival like cavalcades often associated with astral doubles visions of the afterlife belief in multiple souls and prophecies of impending death He reveals how the nearly infinite variations of this myth are a still living evolving tradition that offers us a window into the world in which our ancestors lived AF Press
