

MARKING MEMORANDUM NOVEMBER 2017 CSL2601 EXAMINATION

QUESTION 1

- 1.1 Customary law is a source of law equivalent to the common law. (1)
True
- 1.2 In Executive Council of the Western Cape Legislature v President of the Republic of South Africa 1995 (4) SA 877 (CC) it was held that Parliament can delegate its power to make, amend and repeal Acts of Parliament to the executive because it is universally accepted in modern societies that Parliament cannot attend to every single task that it is enjoined to perform. (1)
False
- 1.3 International law is a persuasive source of law which is not binding but may influence decisions. (1)
False
- 1.4 Besides the fact that the National Prosecuting Authority is legally and constitutionally required to report to the Minister of Justice on its activities and decisions, the level of ministerial oversight under which it operates indicates that it forms part of the executive arm of government. (1)
False
- 1.5 The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, is an example of an inflexible constitution. (1)
True
- 1.6 Sujit Choudhry, a constitutional law expert, describes South Africa as a one-party dominant democracy. Choudhry states that "one of the pathologies of a dominant party democracy is the "capturing" of independent institutions meant to check the exercise of political power by the dominant party, enmeshing them in webs of patronage." An unfortunate consequence of this is that there is virtually no separation of state and party in the present South African context. It is illustrated by the fact that Parliament was not prepared to deal decisively with the issue of non-security upgrades to President Zuma's private residence in Nkandla. (1)
True
- 1.7 Magistrates' courts have the power to declare the conduct of the President unconstitutional. (1)
False
- 1.8 In the Judicial Services Commission and Another v Cape Bar Council and Another 2012 (11) BCLR 1239 (SCA) the Court found that the decisions of the Judicial Services Commission about the appointment of judges could not be reviewed by courts. (1)
False
- 1.9 Cooperative or multi-level government refers to the division of the legislative and executive authorities among three spheres of government, namely the national, provincial and local spheres of government. (1)
True
- 1.10 The need that the judiciary reflects the gender composition of South Africa is more important than the need to reflect the racial composition of South Africa. (1)
False
- 1.11 One of the most important objectives of local government is to meet the basic needs of all inhabitants of South Africa. (1)
True

Yearning to Belong Patrick Pillai, 2016-04-29 Malaysia is among the most ethnically diverse and culturally rich nations on earth Yet much of its cultural wealth lies buried beneath the rubric of its main Malay Chinese and Indian e racee categories the dazzling diversity within and outside these groups remains largely unexplored This book uncovers some of this fascinating diversity through the stories of five little known acculturated ethnic groups in Peninsula Malaysia The author a Malaysian sociologist delivers an insightful and lucid study of these groups with some surprising findings These communities illustrate how much more cross cultural mingling sharing and co dependence there is within Malaysian society than we care to recognize admit or celebrate This raises various questions Is a similar process of spontaneous inter ethnic interaction possible between larger ethnic groups today How can we foster such acculturation and can it by itself contribute to ethnic harmony The author also discovers that despite their long settlement and deep acculturation segments of these groups are anxious about their future and pine for an indigenous identity What are the implications of this trend for ethnic relations and how can it be resolved This book traces the acculturation journey of these communities and draws lessons for ethnic relations in one of the most complex multi ethnic nations in the world It will appeal to scholars students laymen and visitors interested in migration history culture ethnicity and heritage in Malaysia and the region

Adapting to climate change Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee,2010-03-25 Climate projections show that Britain can expect wetter winters drier summers and a higher likelihood of flash floods heat waves and droughts Yet adaptation to climate change has been given only a fraction of the attention that has gone into reducing greenhouse gases The Government must build awareness and support for the wide ranging and urgent programme of action that is needed to protect people property and prosperity and safeguard the natural environment Adapting infrastructure and homes will be expensive To maintain current levels of flood protection for homes real terms spending on flood defences will need to increase from its current level of around 600 million per annum to around 1 billion in 2035 Estimates in 2009 suggest that by the end of the century around 7 billion may be needed to improve the Thames flood barrier and tidal defences New homes being built now must be designed to cope with the inevitable changes in climate over the next 50 80 years The Government must make adaptation and mitigation more central to the planning system New developments should only be permitted if they are suited to future climates Existing homes will also need to be adapted so that they are comfortable during hotter summers and better protected against the risk of flooding The Government must help to kick start an integrated retro fitting programme that covers adaptation water efficiency and energy efficiency Green infrastructure such as water storage greater tree cover and more open green spaces must also be promoted

November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of November 2009 Tourism Marking Memorandum books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
