Portrait Index William Coolidge Lane,Nina Eliza Browne,1906 British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright,Catherine May Gordon,2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting Anatomy of Spirituality: Portrait of the Soul Chander Behl,2015-04-27 The domain of spirituality separated from its theological overburden believes in the existence of a spiritual self presumed to be distinctly separate from the psychological self The spiritual eternal self also known as the soul or spirit sometimes supported by an overarching Spirit is asserted to be operating behind the ephemeral self This book takes a contrarian stance it argues that the premise of the soul concept is obtained through the magic of language maintained through the marvel of the brain's biochemistry and sustained through the mirage of the psychological juggernauts of the brain. The magic, the marvel, and the mirage together bring about subtle shifts as the linguistic brain suppresses many psychological details, habitually applies mental templates such as inversions and dichotomies, and enhances its language by coining religious and spiritual metaphors. The consequence of these changes is that the usual flickering self begins to be impressed by itself, believing it is buttressed by something transcendental and eternal within the soul or the spirit. The self, although indoctrinated during its formative years, also begins to assimilate and accept the opinion that the overwhelming weight of religious doctrines and dogmas, the overburden, signifies as the legitimate proof for the eternal soul.

Contemporary Visual Poetry Fiona Becket, 2025-09-15. This book examines contemporary visual poetry and how conceptual writing, poem objects, and computational texts shape a posthumanist understanding that is situated. First, the eye is theorised with respect to ethical understanding. When visual poets reclaim vision, visual poetics becomes a feminist praxis. In Paula Claire and Maggie O'Sullivan, visual poetry becomes an ecological practice concerned with connectivity in the entanglements of nature/culture. In O'Sullivan, Campanello, Bergvall, and Philip, spatial and temporal sense de/formation sustains radical forms of voicing and eyewitness. Finally, works by Mez Breeze and Stephanie Strickland expand our understanding of visual poetry in digital, electronic, virtual reality, and artificial intelligence contexts in which technology and affect are intimately connected. These visual texts open up Braidotti's question with respect to how we are to visualize the subject as a transversal entity encompassing the human, our genetic neighbours, the animals, and the earth as a whole, and to do so within an understandable language.

The Gallery of Portraits (Vol. 1-7) Arthur Thomas Malkin, 2023-12-18. Arthur Thomas Malkin's The Gallery of Portraits spans seven volumes, presenting a rich tapestry of biographical sketches that celebrate notable figures from history, art, and literature. The work is characterized by its elegant prose and meticulous detail, skillfully blending anecdotal narrative with biographical precision. Malkin's literary style reflects the Victorian era's penchant for thoroughness and moral reflection, engaging readers not only through the vivid portrayals of the subjects but also by evoking the cultural and philosophical currents of the time, making it an essential compendium for anyone interested in the interplay of celebrity and character in the 19th century. Malkin, influenced by his own background as a historian and scholar, crafted this magnum opus to provide insight into the lives and legacies of these pivotal figures. His academic pursuits and keen interest in literary and artistic movements of his time enriched his approach to biographical writing, allowing him to balance fact with narrative flair, thus making the past resonate with contemporary relevance. Malkin's fascination with the human condition and the intricacies of personal achievements provides a foundational lens through which he examines each portrait.

With its blend of scholarly rigor and captivating storytelling The Gallery of Portraits is a must read for enthusiasts of biography history and the arts It invites readers to reflect on the complexities of human achievement and individual narratives against the backdrop of societal progress Malkin s work not only informs but also inspires making it a valuable addition to any literary collection Israel Rank: The Autobiography of a Criminal by Roy Horniman Roy Horniman,2025-05-08T00:00:00Z First published in 1907 Israel Rank The Autobiography of a Criminal is perhaps best known as the inspiration for the classic Ealing comedy Kind Hearts and Coronets which was voted the seventh greatest British film of all time by readers of Total Film magazine in 2004 It has often been suggested that Israel Rank is an anti Semitic novel but this is untrue What Horniman does is to use his characters and the novel s plot as a vehicle to explore and parody the anti-Semitism that was rife in Edwardian England While part of the success of the novel is due to the film s cult status Israel Rank remains a classic comedic novel that explores the antithesis of conventional morality in short it is a comedy about a serial killer The Bibliographer's Manual of English Literature William Thomas Lowndes,1865 Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc William Jerdan,William Ring Workman,Frederick Arnold,John Morley,Charles Wycliffe Goodwin,1833 The Monthly Review, Or, Literary Journal ,1804 The National standard, of literature, science, music [&c.] ed. by F.W.N.
