Our Shared Legacy Mame Warren, 2006-06-09 Conscious of the past equal to the present and reaching forward into the future that s the Hopkins way That s our shared legacy That s the challenge of your tomorrow With these words to the class of 1988 Barbara Donaho 1956 underscored the complex history of nursing education at Johns Hopkins From the founding of the hospital s training nursing school in 1889 through years of struggle to achieve full academic recognition as the Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing Hopkins nurses have maintained high standards of excellence professionalism and vigilance both at the bedside and in the highest realms of leadership In this beautifully illustrated volume Mame Warren Linda Sabin and Mary Frances Keen weave a rich tapestry of the Nursing School s deep and fascinating tradition The voices of generations of Hopkins nurses combine with a well researched historical narrative to offer a stirring tribute to Hopkins nursing students and alumni along with unique insight into the history of an admirable and challenging profession

Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory

Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning Teaching and Learning with Technology Concetta M. Stewart,Catherine C. Schifter,Melissa E. Markaridian Selverian,2010-07-02 Today new media is both augmenting and extending the traditional classroom with a variety of technology based tools available to both students and faculty and has created new virtual classrooms for anywhere anytime availability to education Despite the enormous potential for technology to support the educational enterprise in this emerging creative economy technologies are still not yet fully integrated in the classroom and their association with educational outcomes is as yet unclear This book profiles scholarly work from around the world to examine closely the effectiveness of the newest media in education at bridging the gaps among and between teachers students and subject matter at all levels from K 12 through adult education These pieces are theory based investigations with implications for future research theory and application Contributors examine how the fields of education and new media have evolved and are continuing to evolve pedagogically and practically from predominantly instructivist with a passive one way teaching format to constructivist including teacher and learner controlled sensorially immersive and socially interactive exchanges This book will be of interest to students and faculty in the areas of new media in education including distance learning online learning and virtual learning Oversight of the Indian Education Act United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Indian Affairs,1985 A Guide to Detracking Math Courses Angela Torres,Ho Nguyen,Elizabeth Hull Barnes,Laura Wentworth,2023-05-03 Create a pathway to equity by detracking mathematics The tracked mathematics system has been operating in US schools for decades However research demonstrates negative effects on subgroups of students by keeping them in a single math track thereby denying them access to rigorous coursework needed for college and career readiness The journey to change this involves confronting some long standing beliefs and structures in education When supported with the right structures instructional shifts coalition building and educator training and support the detracking of mathematics courses can be a primary pathway to equity The ultimate goal is to increase more students access to and achievement in higher levels of mathematics learning especially for students who are historically marginalized Based on the stories and lessons learned from the San Francisco Unified School District educators who have talked the talk and walked the walk this book provides a model for all those involved in taking on detracking efforts from policymakers and school administrators to math coaches and teachers By sharing stories of real world examples lessons learned and prompts to provoke discussion about your own context the book walks you through Designing and gaining support for a policy of detracked math courses Implementing the policy through practical shifts in scheduling curriculum professional development and coaching Supporting and improving the policy through continuous research monitoring and maintenance This book offers the big ideas that help you in your own unique journey to advance equity in your school or district's mathematics education and also provides practical information to help students in a detracked system thrive The School Journal ,1899 New York School Journal ,1895 Future Directions in Polymer Colloids Mohamed S.
