Possessing Your Possession David O. Oyedepo, 2006 Pentecostalism and Prosperity K. Attanasi, A. Yong, 2012-02-27 While there are a growing number of researchers who are exploring the political and social aspects of the global Renewal movement few have provided sustained socio economic analyses of this phenomenon The editors and contributors to this volume offer perspectives in light of the growth of the Renewal movement in the two thirds world An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest King and Prophet threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed Lutheran Methodist Pentecostal Charismatic Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context Religion Crossing Boundaries, 2010-08-18 Across the past twenty years major change has taken place in the structure of global society with respect to the nature of migration The predominant pattern since at least the eighteenth century had been for peoples to move to and settle in Western countries permanently with relatively little substantive interchange with their former homelands hence adopting the modes of articulation characteristic of their new societies a process expressed with respect to the USA for example as Americanization This pattern has now changed and there is considerable interaction between homeland and migrant peoples One of the places this has become especially important is in religious exchanges While some negative effects of this process may grab headlines there have also been extensive positive interactions not least among African peoples especially with respect to pentecostal and allied religious movements The chapters in this book illustrate the variety of these exchanges Contributors include Wale Adebani Edlyne Anugwom J Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu Marleen de Witte Laura Grillo Susan M Kilonzo Samuel Krinsky G raldine Mossi re Philomena Njeri Mwaura Joel Noret Ebenezer Obadare Damaris S Parsitau Mei Mei Sanford Linda van de Kamp and Rijk van Dijk

Global Pentecostal and Charismatic Healing Candy Gunther Brown,2011-02-24 Divine healing is an essential marker of the global phenomenon of Pentecostal and charismatic Christianity But although we know that healing is central in these movements we know surprisingly little about how divine healing beliefs and practices reflect the interplay of local and global patterns of cultural development The essays in this collection seek to discover what is the same and what is different about such beliefs and practices in diverse contexts trace formal and informal lines of cultural influence across geographic and national boundaries and ask how healing both reflects and contributes to larger processes of globalization

Pentecostalism in Africa ,2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa s religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power

Poverty, the Bible, and Africa Isaac Boaheng,2020-08-31 Poverty reduction is a worldwide concern yet if the church is to play an effective role in its alleviation an approach that is both biblical and contextual is required In Poverty the Bible and Africa Isaac Boaheng formulates a theology of poverty that engages Scripture African traditional wisdom and contemporary African concerns to create a paradigm for understanding and alleviating poverty in Africa Boaheng highlights that whatever our cultural context God frowns upon materialism extravagance and love for riches yet the author also demonstrates why a contextual theology must address people's societal and cultural needs alongside spiritual ones. If we desire a model for poverty reduction that is both theologically sound and contextually appropriate, we must facilitate an encounter between the teachings of Scripture and the socio-economic, political, and religious realities of a particular context. Combining in-depth cultural analysis with careful exegetical reflection, this book offers refreshing insight into the challenge of confronting poverty in Africa. Boaheng's approach, however, is relevant far beyond the continent and is transferable to any context where others are seeking to effectively understand and combat poverty.
