The NYC School Progress Report informs families about the school's strengths and weaknesses, emphasizing how far students have come in the past year. Progress Report grades are made up of 3 sections: student progress, student performance, and school environment. In each section, your school's results are compared to the results of other schools serving similar students. To view your school's Progress Report in detail, visit AFES Parent Link at afesparentlink.org.

Overall Progress Report Grade
F

Student Progress

15.9 out of 20 points

F

The Student Progress grade is based on the annual progress students make toward meeting the state's graduation requirements by earning course credits and passing State Regents exams.

Student Performance

5.9 out of 20 points

F

The Student Performance grade is based on how many students are graduating and the types of diplomas they earn.

School Environment

6.2 out of 10 points

D

The School Environment grade is based on student attendance and the school's NYC School Survey, where parents, teachers, and students rate academic expectations, safety and respect, communication, and engagement.

College and Career Readiness

2.4 out of 10 points

F

College and Career Readiness measures how well students are prepared for life after high school on the basis of passing advanced courses, meeting English and math standards, and enrolling in a post-secondary institution.

Closing the Achievement Gap

3.0 (10 points max)

Schools receive additional credit for exceptional graduation results among students with disabilities and English Language Learners, and for exceptional graduation and/or Regents results among students with the lowest proficiency citywide.

Overall Grade

33.4 out of 100 points

F

The Overall Grade is based on the total of all scores above, including additional credit. Category scores may not add up to overall score because of rounding.
