UnCommon Preaching Susan Cartmell, 2015-07-24 There is a spiritual hunger in the world today Many people are seeking answers to life's hard questions Many people come to church seeking inspiration help for personal problems or faith's perspective on life They come seeking things you cannot find in a search engine The church has exactly what they need but too often there is a gap between our message and our ability to send it Each week as people pause to learn about faith and get a word of hope a lot rides on the sermon Susan Cartmell took a journey across the country to visit churches with great preaching and lively worship What she discovered was that Evangelical Christians and Unitarian Universalists were using themed preaching effectively to attract new members Working in her church over the last five years she has designed a new system for preaching with themes in mainline Protestant churches She shares her method and her journey in a story that invites you to consider new ways to preach faithfully without using the lectionary

Finding Our Balance Ronald P. Byars, 2015-03-27 Mainstream American Protestantism is suffering from an identity crisis We are not fundamentalists but it is easy to define ourselves in reaction to them Paralyzed by the shock of a cultural turn toward skepticism we are tempted to make allies of the skeptics partly to distance ourselves from the religious right and partly to lay claim to credibility in a milieu in which it is okay to be spiritual but not to be religious A consequence is that we find ourselves playing in the shallow end of the pool The historic Protestant principle serves as an enabler when it privileges questioning over affirmation causing us to lose the necessary balance between the two American style generic Protestantism as it has evolved does not have strong enough foundations to withstand cultural pressures Discovering an identity worth being taken seriously will require revisiting the broad catholic and reforming tradition in order to find an authoritative rather than merely reactive voice The challenge is theological but not to academic theology The challenge rather is to the theology that sustains the local congregation through teaching certainly but most pressingly through preaching and worship The times call for thoughtful and strategic repositioning

Christian Practical Wisdom Dorothy C. Bass, Kathleen A. Cahalan, Bonnie J. Miller-McClemore, James R. Nieman, Christian B. Scharen, 2016 In this richly collaborative work five distinguished scholars examine the oft neglected embodied practical wisdom that is essential for true theological understanding and faithful Christian living After first showing what Christian practical wisdom is and does in several real life situations the authors tell why such practical wisdom matters and how it operates exploring reasons behind its decline in both the academy and the church and setting forth constructive cases for its renewal

Caldwell, 2024-01-02 Lent is an ideal time to step back and reflect on the deeper movements of the spirit and Elizabeth Caldwell helps readers do this through a simple but profound approach Pause Spending Lent with the Psalms invites us to take up the spiritual practice of encountering sinking into and deeply engaging with one psalm each week during Lent and Holy Week The season of Lent encourages Christians to consider a different pace one of slowing down noticing pausing than what our dominant culture values The invitation to pause with the Psalms begins on Ash Wednesday starting with a mark of ashes on our foreheads that reminds us that in spite of our failures things we have done or failed to do we belong to God Readers are then guided into an exploration of Psalm 51 and the theme of a clean heart Each chapter helps readers to connect an image drawn from that psalm such as paths faces blessing tables waiting thanksgiving listening being alone or abandoned and hands with their own lives At the close of each chapter readers are invited to try a different prayer practice to help them continue to reflect on the theme and psalm each day This intentional engagement without feeling burdensome opens just enough space and time for a creative spiritual practice to flourish sustaining the life of faith during the Lenten season in ways that can make a difference in God's world Reflection and discussion questions are included with each chapter The book includes a leader's guide at the end for study groups Download more resources for group study sermon series and worship services including illustrated visual aids at www.wjkbooks.com Pause

From Words of Woe to Unbelievable News: Robert D Cornwall, 2015-02-06 You've been a lectionary preacher throughout your ministry You like the discipline of dealing with the scripture of the week rather than just grabbing something that is easy for you to handle You're willing to preach on the hard stuff But what about the rest of scripture those passages that never appear in the weekly readings from the Revised Common Lectionary Are you and your congregation missing something that could be of great benefit Dr David Ackerman who writes the introduction to From Words of Woe to Unbelievable News felt the need to cover more of scripture and proposed a fourth year lectionary that covered passages that are not included in the Revised Common Lectionary In turn Dr Bob Cornwall a pastor highly qualified for the task chose to use these texts in a series of sermons for Lent and Holy Week He preached those sermons in 2014 We now offer these sermons in this Topical Line Drives volume One of the stumbling blocks with new ideas is the question of how one gets started It's sometimes hard to find just the approach to take to a new set of texts and a new set of ideas Bob Cornwall leads the way finding timely and powerful applications of these difficult texts Besides being a resource for pastors these sermons provide meditations that can be used as the basis for a Lenten study or for small groups

Stephens, Michael I. Alleman, Andrea Brown, Ruth A. Daugherty, Mary Merriman, 2018-05-02 Biblical and progressive Mainline and charismatic Faithful and questioning This book is not what you think it is The story of the Exodus is told in parallel with testimonies sermons and personal reflections from a congregation in Lancaster Pennsylvania challenging the reader to a journey of faith Along the way it becomes clear that open and affirming ministry transcends LGBTQIA inclusion It is also about race relations poverty generational change divorce immigration and any other human created barrier to loving God and neighbor Tools for the journey Finding a new voice amid profound social change is a difficult and vitally important task Many congregations and entire denominations are in the process of figuring out how to express a new voice of faith particularly in our understanding of sexuality and gender Christians are experiencing nothing less than a holy disruption caused by the Spirit among us The book concludes with a discussion of challenges to community and ministry Helpful appendices provide congregational resources and discussion questions for group study The stories in this book include experiences of and with persons in many denominational settings Roman Catholic Unitarian Universalist Presbyterian Church in Taiwan Metropolitan Community Church United Church of Christ United Brethren Church of the Brethren Society of Friends Quakers and United Methodist This is truly an ecumenical journey Liturgical Hermeneutics of Sacred Scripture Marco Benini, 2023-09-15 The purpose of this book is to explore what a liturgical approach to the Bible looks like and what hermeneutical implications this might have How does the liturgy celebrate understand and communicate Scripture The starting point is Pope Benedict's affirmation that a faith filled understanding of sacred Scripture must always refer back to the liturgy Verbum Domini 52 The first part of the book based on SC 24 provides significant examples to demonstrate The liturgical order of readings intertextually combines Old Testament and New Testament readings using manifold hermeneutical principles specifically how the psalms show the wide range of interpretations the liturgy employs Prayers are biblically inspired and help to appropriate Scripture personally The hymns convey Scripture in a poetic way Signs and actions such as foot washing or the Ephphetha rite enact Scripture The study considers the Mass the sacraments and the Liturgy of the Hours In the second part Benini systematically focuses on the various dimensions of liturgical hermeneutics of the Bible which emerge from the first part The study reflects the approaches the liturgy offers to Scripture and its liturgical reception It explores theological aspects such as the unity of the two Testaments in Christ's paschal mystery or the anamnesis as a central category in both Scripture and liturgy The liturgy does not understand Scripture primarily as a document of the past but celebrates it as a current and living Word of the Lord as a medium of encounter with God Scripture is sacramental Liturgical Hermeneutics of Sacred Scripture seeks to contribute not only to the comparison of the Roman Ambrosian and Byzantine Rite regarding the Word of God but most of all to the overall liturgical approach to Scripture As such it promotes an interdisciplinary dialogue of liturgical and biblical studies
