The Identity of the Architect Laura Iloniemi, 2019-12-23 Today there are more tools for communication than ever before yet very little in the way of reflection on how these are being used and even less on what exactly is being conveyed This issue of AD looks at how architecture is communicated from a cultural perspective Do the identities of practices or their business driven branding and promotional efforts resonate with the critical acclaim many architects seek Has slick image led media coverage sold the profession short How is it possible to convey the less visual and haptic qualities of architecture Can architects be more creative in their communication efforts making these joyous on their own terms as Le Corbusier did so memorably Is there really a need to succumb to the world of corporate marketing processes and managerial business jargon The issue explores notions of editing and curating work in an age of data deluge and discusses social media as a genuinely alternative space for communication rather than for just repurposing and regurgitating information relayed The Identity of the Architect encourages the promotion of practices as an integral extension of the very culture they hope to engender through their work Contributors Stephen Bayley Caroline Cole Adam Nathaniel Furman Gabor Gallov Jonathan Glancey Justine Harvey Owen Hopkins Crispin Kelly Jay Merrick Robin Monotti Juhani Pallasmaa Vicky Richardson Jenny Sabin and Austin Williams Featured architects Ian Ritchie BIG MVRDV IF_DO and Zaha Hadid Architects
