

THEME • Governance

LEARNING OBJECTIVE • Explain causes and effects of the various revolutions in the period from 1750 to 1900.

It's time to talk about revolutions.

■ CAUSES OF REVOLUTION

Now before we walk through the major revolutions you need to know, we need to explore the three main factors that got everyone stirred up into a revolutionary fervor.

And the first cause, and maybe the most important, was the rise of nationalism which describes a sense of commonality among a people based on shared language, religion, social customs, and that is often linked with a desire for territory. And this was a new development during this period. For most of human history, as you've seen, large states incorporated many diverse peoples within their borders. Like the Ottoman Empire or the Mongol Empire, or insert empire name here—none of those empires were associated with a singular people that shared an ethnicity or language. However, during this period the notion that people who shared a culture and history and ethnicity ought to dwell in their own territory and rule themselves was becoming increasingly strong.

Some states actually tried to use this growing nationalistic fervor to their advantage in order to foster a sense of unity among their people. And they did this by injecting nationalist themes into their schools, emphasizing public rituals that glorified the nation and its culture, and pushing people into military service. For example, Russian leaders required the Russian language to be spoken throughout their territorial holdings in order to create a sense of unity among the various ethnicities under the authority of the state. However, that attempt at nationalistic unity through language backfired in places like Ukraine and Poland and Finland. Each place had their own languages that identified them as a people and the imposition of Russian only created a more powerful counter-nationalism against Russian authority in those places.
