Rhapsody Of Realities November 2012 Edition:

Music, Performance, and the Realities of Film Ben Winters, 2014-02-05 This book examines the relationship between narrative film and reality as seen through the lens of on screen classical concert performance By investigating these scenes wherein the performance of music is foregrounded in the narrative Winters uncovers how concert performance reflexively articulates music's importance to the ontology of film The book asserts that narrative film of a variety of aesthetic approaches and traditions is no mere copy of everyday reality but constitutes its own filmic reality and that the music heard in a film's underscore plays an important role in distinguishing film reality from the everyday As a result concert scenes are examined as sites for provocative interactions between these two realities in which real world musicians appear in fictional narratives and an audience's suspension of disbelief is problematised In blurring the musical experiences of onscreen observers and participants these concert scenes also allegorize music's role in creating a shared subjectivity between film audience and character and prompt Winters to propose a radically new vision of music's role in narrative cinema wherein musical underscore becomes part of a shared audio visual space that may be just as accessible to the characters as the music they encounter in scenes of concert performance

Sensational Piety Murtala Ibrahim, 2022-08-11 Grounded in anthropological comparison and the concept of materiality this book offers an in depth ethnographic study of the similarities and differences among various forms of religious practices in a Pentecostal Church Christ Embassy and an Islamic group NASFAT in the Nigerian capital of Abuja

Scholarship in this area tends to focus on inter religious contestations and conflicts however this book proposes that another dynamic is unfolding between Christians and Muslims that is characterised by conviviality interfaith joint action programmes mutual influences and even the exchange of religious forms The comparative approach reveals that notwithstanding the seemingly opposed worldviews and divergences between Muslims and Christians they all face similar challenges and apply similar techniques for meeting the challenges posed by the precarious Nigerian urban environment It is through practices especially those conducted in semi public settings that people from different religious persuasions define encroach on and feel the weight of each other s presence

With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl,2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9 11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community

Revenge Capitalism Max Haiven,2020-05-20 Capitalism is in a profound state of crisis Beyond the mere dispassionate cruelty of ordinary structural violence it appears today as a global system bent on reckless economic revenge its expression found in mass incarceration climate chaos unpayable debt pharmaceutical violence and the relentless degradation of common life In Revenge Capitalism Max Haiven argues that this economic vengeance helps us explain the culture and politics of revenge we see in society more broadly Moving from the history of colonialism and its continuing effects today he examines the opioid crisis in the US the growth of surplus populations worldwide and unpacks the central paradigm of unpayable debts both as reparations owed and as a methodology of oppression. Revenge Capitalism offers no easy answers but is a powerful call to the radical imagination.

Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh, 2010-07-10 Korngold in America Ben Winters, 2025. Korngold in America offers new ways of listening to the film scores and post-Hollywood concert works of Erich Wolfgang Korngold (1897-1957), a Viennese-raised Austro-Hungarian composer who left Europe for Hollywood in the mid-1930s to write for Warner Bros. It reassesses Korngold's place in twentieth-century music historiography and dismantles many of the myths that have obscured a proper understanding of his work. Drawing on previously unpublished archival materials, Korngold in America reveals Korngold's commercial and artistic relationships with studio processes and staff, highlights aspects of his compositional practice, and traces the way in which he adapted his skills as a musical dramatist and experienced opera composer to the demands of film. The book presents a more complete picture of Korngold's artistry than has hitherto been possible, showing both the important role played by his music in the Hollywood films of which it is a part and the importance in turn of Hollywood films for his compositional identity. In so doing, it challenges assumptions about the relationship between Korngold's film scores and his works for the concert hall and opera house in ways that draw attention to the significance of Hollywood for histories of twentieth-century music.

Mary, A Fiction and The Wrongs of Woman, or Maria Mary Wollstonecraft, 2012-04-05. Mary Wollstonecraft wrote these two novellas at the beginning and end of her years of writing and political activism. Though written at different times, they explore some of the same issues: ideals of femininity as celebrated by the cult of sensibility, the unequal education of women, and domestic subjugation. Mary counters the contemporary trend of weak emotional heroines with the story of an intelligent and creative young woman who educates herself through her close friendships with men and women. Darker and more overtly feminist, The Wrongs of Woman is set in an insane asylum where a young woman has been wrongly imprisoned by her husband. By presenting the novellas in light of such texts as Wollstonecraft's letters, her polemical and educational prose, similar works by other feminists, and political reformists, the literature of sentiment and contemporary medical texts this edition encourages an appreciation of the complexity and sophistication of Wollstonecraft's writing goals as a radical feminist in the 1790s Schwann Supplementary Catalog
