Early Christianity in Alexandria M. David Litwa, 2023-12-21 Alexandria was the epicenter of Hellenic learning in the ancient Mediterranean world yet little is known about how Christianity arrived and developed in the city during the late first and early second century CE In this volume M David Litwa employs underused data from the Nag Hammadi codices and early Christian writings to open up new vistas on the creative theologians who invented Christianities in Alexandria prior to Origen and the catechetical school of the third century With clarity and precision he traces the surprising theological continuities that connect Philo and later figures including Basilides Carpocrates Prodicus and Julius Cassianus among others Litwa demonstrates how the earliest followers of Jesus navigated Jewish theology and tradition while simultaneously rejecting many Jewish customs and identity markers before and after the Diaspora Revolt His book shows how Christianity in Alexandria developed distinctive traits and seeded the world with ideas that still resonate today Virginia Genealogies

Ritual happens in distinct places in temples in caves along pilgrimage routes and religious activities there incorporate a diverse set of objects such as holy water cult statues and sacred texts Understanding religious ritual requires viewing it not as a disembodied event but as emplaced grounded in both built and natural surroundings and integrated with its associated material objects Here authors examine various religious practices in the Greco Roman world and pilgrimage routes in contemporary Israel Other contributions focus on the East on domestic religion in prehistoric Taiwan and the palimpsest of ritual activity in Buddhist China One author considers not just ritual's built and natural setting but also the landscape of the human mind By way of conclusion many of the recurring issues concerning the material and topographic matrix of ritual practice are expanded upon in a final meditation on sacred space The papers in this volume with their disciplinary geographic and chronological diversity will serve as a resource for theoretical approaches to the study of ritual practice that may have broad cross cultural application and provide new insight into the relationship between ritual and place The volume is based on a conference held at Brown University Slavic Paganism in Medieval Christian Writings Jiří Dynda, 2025-10-30 How did medieval Christian writers shape our understanding of Slavic paganism What prompted men like Thietmar of Merseburg Saxo Grammaticus Cosmas of Prague or the anonymous Old Russian preacher to write detailed accounts of Slavic rituals deities and nearly forgotten tales This volume examines the discursive strategies these authors used to describe distort and redefine pre Christian Slavic religion Through over a dozen case studies the author explores texts archaeological evidence and ethnographic data that reveal how Christianity attempted to reframe pagan traditions With innovative interpretations and interdisciplinary methods this book offers novel perspectives on the study of Slavic pre Christian religions in the Middle Ages The Temple of Jerusalem: From Moses to the Messiah Steven Fine, 2011-01-17 The Temple of Jerusalem From Moses to the Messiah brings together an interdisciplinary and broad ranging international community of scholars to discuss aspects of the history and continued life of the Jerusalem Temple in Western culture from biblical times to the present This volume is the fruit of the inaugural conference of the Yeshiva University Center for Israel Studies which convened in New York City on May 11 12 2008 and honors Professor Louis H Feldman Abraham Wouk Family Professor of Classics and Literature at Yeshiva University Feldman is the doyen of modern scholarship on Judaism in the Greco Roman period focusing on the writings of Flavius Josephus A beloved mentor to generations of Yeshiva University students and of scholars across the globe Professor Feldman has taught at YU since 1955 The articles are consistently of high quality This book is highly recommended for any academic collection in Jewish studies Jim Rosenbloom Judaica Librarian Brandeis University President Association of Jewish Libraries Juvenal and the Poetics of Anonymity Tom Geue, 2017-11-23 The satirist Juvenal remains one of antiquity s greatest question marks His Satires entered the mainstream of the classical tradition with nothing more than an uncertain name and a dubious biography to recommend them Tom Geue argues that the missing author figure is no mere casualty of time s passage but a startling concerted effect of the Satires themselves Scribbling dangerous social critique under a historical maximum of paranoia Juvenal harnessed this dark energy by wiping all traces of himself signature body biographical snippets social connections from his reticent texts This last major ambassador of a once self betraying genre took a radical leap into the anonymous Juvenal and the Poetics of Anonymity tracks this mystifying self concealment over the whole Juvenalian corpus Through probing close readings it shows how important the missing author was to this satire and how that absence echoes and amplifies the neurotic politics of writing under surveillance Canonisation as Innovation , 2022-09-19 Canonisation is fundamental to the sustainability of cultures This volume is meant as a theoretical exploration of the process taking Eurasian societies from roughly the first millennium BCE Babylonian Assyrian Persian Greek Egyptian Jewish and Roman as case studies It focuses on canonisation as a form of cultural formation asking why and how canonisation works in this particular way and explaining the importance of the first millennium BCE for these question and vice versa As a result of this focus notions like anchoring cultural memory embedding and innovation play an important role throughout the book Inscriptions in the Private Sphere in the Greco-Roman World Rebecca Benefiel, Peter Keegan, 2015-11-30 When one thinks of inscriptions produced under the Roman Empire public inscribed monuments are likely to come to mind Hundreds of thousands of such inscriptions are known from across the breadth of the Roman Empire preserved because they were created of durable material or were reused in subsequent building This volume looks at another aspect of epigraphic creation from handwritten messages scratched on wall plaster to domestic sculptures labeled with texts to displays of official patronage posted in homes a range of inscriptions appear within the private sphere in the Greco Roman world Rarely scrutinized as a discrete epigraphic phenomenon the incised texts studied in this volume reveal that writing in private spaces was very much a part of the epigraphic culture of the Roman Empire Religion in Rural Late-Antique Iberia José Carlos López Gómez, Antón Alvar Nuño, 2025-06-16 This volume examines the dynamism and complexity of religious expressions in rural settings across Late Antique Iberia Chapters demonstrate that the rural world was a dynamic space which formed an integral part of the multi directional process of religious exchange on the Iberian Peninsula in Late Antiquity thus refuting the idea that rural spaces and in turn rural religious practices were static and unchanging anchored in tradition and resistant to any process of religious change The chapters present a series of case studies that examine phenomena such as the multi locality of certain religious groups that moved periodically between the city and the countryside the strategies that local agents used to shape religious expressions in rural areas significantly marked by the permeability between the urban and rural worlds the creation of religious landscapes as spaces imbued with cultural meanings by religious authorities that conceive the rural world as a place of refuge and spiritual experience or the analysis of trans local religious networks that connected rural and urban settings facilitating the transmission of rituals and practices between these two spheres Finally both the introduction and the final chapter discuss the concept of rural religion and its applicability to the sphere of Late Antiquity This volume provides a much needed resource for students and scholars of religion in Late Antique Iberia and in the post Roman world more broadly as well as anyone working on rural religion in the ancient Late Antique and Medieval worlds Australian Literary Manuscripts in North American Libraries Nan Bowman Albinski, 1997 Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have
