This Mournable Body Tsitsi Dangarembga, 2018-08-07 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2020 BOOKER PRIZE A searing novel about the obstacles facing women in Zimbabwe by one of the country's most notable authors Anxious about her prospects

after leaving a stagnant job Tambudzai finds herself living in a run down youth hostel in downtown Harare For reasons that include her grim financial prospects and her age she moves to a widow s boarding house and eventually finds work as a biology teacher But at every turn in her attempt to make a life for herself she is faced with a fresh humiliation until the painful contrast between the future she imagined and her daily reality ultimately drives her to a breaking point In This Mournable Body Tsitsi Dangarembga returns to the protagonist of her acclaimed first novel Nervous Conditions to examine how the hope and potential of a young girl and a fledgling nation can sour over time and become a bitter and floundering struggle for survival As a last resort Tambudzai takes an ecotourism job that forces her to return to her parents impoverished homestead It is this homecoming in Dangarembga s tense and psychologically charged novel that culminates in an act of betrayal revealing just how toxic the combination of colonialism and capitalism can be

Socio-Cultural Perspectives on Science Education W.W. Cobern,2012-12-06 Global science education is a reality at the end of the 20th century albeit an uneven reality because of tremendous technological and economic pressures Unfortunately this reality is rarely examined in the light of what interests the everyday lives of ordinary people rather than the lives of political and economic elites The purpose of this book is to offer insightful and thought provoking commentary on both realities The tacit question throughout the book is Whose interests are being served by current science education practices and policies The various chapters offer critical analysis from the perspectives of culture economics epistemology equity gender language and religion in an effort to promote a reflective science education that takes place within rather than taking over the important cultural lives of people The target audience for the book includes graduate students in education science education and education policy professors policy and government officials involved with education
