Background: www.who.int is the official website of the World Health Organization (WHO). It is the largest and most visited website in the world, with over 1 billion hits per month. The website is a key source of information for the public and health professionals alike. It provides a wide range of services, including health information, news, and a directory of WHO member states. The website is also a key platform for WHO's communication and public relations efforts. It is used to disseminate information about WHO's work and to engage with the public and health professionals. The website is a key asset for WHO and is essential for its mission to improve the health of the world.
