The Library of Trinity College Cambridge contains the largest collection of medieval manuscripts of any college in Great Britain and one of the most important collections in the world. The subjects contained therein cover the whole range of topics usual to medieval manuscripts with the single bias being that the majority were produced in Britain. Particularly noteworthy are Wycliffite translations of the Bible, sermons and Wycliffite tracts, three manuscripts containing Nicholas Love's Mirror of the Blessed Life of Ihesu Crist and major collections of devotional texts. Trinity is also rich in medieval scientific manuscripts, many of which came through Roger Gale's interest in this field; they include a number of large medical manuscripts whose compilers were apparently trying to bring together much of the current knowledge of the day from tracts by such men as John of Arderne and Gilbertus Anglicus with recipes for treatments under a single cover. The collection also contains major compilations of alchemical tracts, historical and legal material and unique Middle English translations of classical and early medieval texts. Finally, a number of known Middle English texts not previously thought to be in the Trinity Collection are identified, opening new areas for study of Trinity's manuscripts, especially the medical and scientific texts which have much to tell of scientific learning in England in the later middle ages.

LINNE R. MOONEY is Associate Professor of English at the University of Maine and a former graduate of the Center for Medieval Studies at Toronto.

Rats and How to Destroy Them (Traps and Trapping Series - Vermin & Pest Control) Mark Hovell, 2013-04-18. Originally published in 1924, this rare early work on rats and their control is both expensive and hard to find in its first edition. READ COUNTRY BOOKS has republished it in an affordable, high quality modern edition using the original text and artwork. The author was an expert and dedicated destroyer of rats who also invented the Terrier Death Run Rat Trap and the Blocking Trap. He was persuaded to write this fascinating book after fighting a memorable battle in ridding a friend's house and farm of a long established and numerous rat colony. Utilising his vast knowledge of the Brown and the Black Rat and his many years of practical experience in their destruction, he penned this, the most comprehensive of all books ever published on this particular subject. Over five hundred pages contain forty-eight detailed chapters including Habits and Natural History of the Rat, Traps Type and Use, Signals, Trapping Methods, Snaring Ferrets and Ferreting, The Mongoose, Dogs, Trailing, Poisoning, Virus, Blocking, Flooding, Fumigation, Varnish and Rat Lime Trap, The Rodier System, How to Deal with Rats in the House, Shop, Outbuildings, Yards, Stables, Cow Houses, Fowl Pens, Pig Sties, Gardens, Greenhouses, Rivers and Ships, Rats on Shooting Estates and Farms, Sewers, Notes on Plague, Cancer in Rats, etc etc. There are also chapters on the control of mice, cockroaches and sparrows, with extra detailed chapters on traps and their design. Over fifty text illustrations are included, detailing trap design and usage etc. Also retained are several pages of vintage advertisements for rat traps, poisons, baits, books etc. This is a fascinating read for anyone interested in the countryside rural conservation pest control game keeping etc with much of the historical information remaining useful and practical today Many of the earliest sporting books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive READ COUNTRY BOOKS are republishing many of these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork

Rivera-Barnes, 2020-12-16 The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures retraces the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature from the earliest traditions of Western literature including Biblical texts Medieval Spanish literature early Spanish Renaissance texts to nineteenth and twentieth century Iberian and Latin American literatures The nature of hate is neither hate in its weakened form as in disliking or loving less nor hate in its righteous form as in I hate hatred rather hate in its primal form as told and conveyed in so many culturally influential Bible stories that are at the root of hatred as it manifests itself today The hatred of nature is not only contempt for the natural world but also the idea of nature hating in return thus inspiring even more hatred of nature While some chapters such as the one dedicated to La Celestina focus more on the nature of hate and the hatred of love they do address the hatred of nature as when Celestina conjures Pluto who happens to be closer to nature than to Satan Other chapters such as the ones dedicated to the Latin American novels set in the jungle focus more on the hatred of nature but ultimately turn to the nature of hatred by analyzing hatred and the descent into madness In the final chapters Beatriz Rivera Barnes simultaneously addresses the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature as well as the ecophilia ecophobia debate in twentieth century Latin American literatures and considers if not an assimilation of hate possibly the cannibalizing of hate
