Make Ink Jason Logan, 2018-09-11 The pigments he concocts from these humble beginnings are as fun to make as they are eye opening to work with the world never quite looks the same Martha Stewart com A 2018 Best Book of the Year The Guardian The Toronto Ink Company was founded in 2014 by designer and artist Jason Logan as a citizen science experiment to make eco friendly urban ink from street harvested pigments In Make Ink Logan delves into the history of inkmaking and the science of distilling pigment from the natural world Readers will learn how to forage for materials such as soot rust cigarette butts peach pits and black walnut then how to mix test and transform these ingredients into rich vibrant inks that are sensitive to both place and environment Organized by color and featuring lovely minimalist photography throughout Make Ink combines science art and craft to instill the basics of ink making and demonstrate the beauty and necessity of engaging with one of mankind s oldest tools of communication Logan demystifies the process encouraging experimentation and taking a fresh look at urban environments NPR The book is full of inspiration and takes a lot of the mystery out of ink making at least at its simplest level And it also reminds me why I love ink any ink or liquid color as much as I do The Well Appointed Desk Quite a few recipes that use color from the kitchen carrots black beans blueberries turmeric and onion skins all make beautiful ink colors Design Observer Make Ink opens up about methods providing an open source guide to DIY ink CityLab

The Other End of the Needle David C. Lane, 2020-11-13 The Other End of the Needle encourages readers to step into the complex world of tattooists Through interviews with tattooists and observations in their shops Lane challenges us to understand how people collectively create and sustain culture By asking how people make things this book shows how tattoos are more than just images on the skin Shan Manuscripts B. J. Terwiel, Chāichūn Khamdāngyōttai, 2003 Shan people can be found in a belt stretching from Assam Northeastern India over Myanmar Burma to the Chinese province Yunnan In this volume Shan manuscripts from collections in Berlin Munich and Hamburg are described In this catalogue a total of 335 manuscripts and inscribed pieces of cloth are introduced For each document there is mentioned its title the date the author its appearance as well as a summary of the contents In the introduction many topics are raised such as a short history of the Shan the Shan script famous authors material writing culture a typology of written documents and the principles of prosody In compiling this catalogue of Shan manuscript Terwiel and Chaichuen have done valuable work which will be appreciated by everyone who is doing research on Shan or Tai culture or cultural history and related themes by using original indigenous sources The completion of this work marks a new milestone in Shan studies and Tai studies as a whole Tai culture Huber's Tattoo Quentin Smith, 2014-05-28 Imagine if the secretive Nazi ambition to breed a super intelligent race in the 1930s had been realised Huber s Tattoo reveals the complicity of the German medical and scientific establishments in the mechanics of engineering the Super Race Set in London in 2011 several loosely connected murders are gradually traced back to the secretive and shocking Nazi eugenics program centred around Himmler s Lebensborn birthing homes As this bizarre pattern becomes more noticeable the intellectually brilliant DCI Webber of Scotland Yard discovers throughout the course of his investigation that his own links to the Lebensborn program and the murders themselves are much closer than he could have ever imagined A parallel narrative starting in Germany in 1936 follows the Nazi medical doctors involved in this ingenious secret project to engineer Aryan super intelligence The two narratives eventually converge to create a thrilling finish It is from the midst of this putrid sewer that the greatest river of human industry springs up Here it is that humanity achieves for itself both perfection and brutalization Huber s Tattoo is the extraordinary story of a relatively unknown aspect of Nazi history Viewed through contemporary characters who follow the clues back to the 1930s the story suggests the impact such fiendish tampering with medicine and human development could have inflicted on future generations Inspired by authors such as C J Sansom and Patricia Cornwell Quentin is fascinated by the concept of engineering human intelligence as well as the evil and misguided ambitions of the Nazi Lebensborn and eugenics programmes of the 1930 s Huber s Tattoo will appeal to fans of crime and historical fiction The Recipe for Revolution Carolyn Chute,2020-02-11 The PEN New England Award winning author returns to Egypt Maine where revolution is brewing in a rural compound as the twenty first century approaches It s September 1999 and Gordon St Onge known as The Prophet presides over his controversial Settlement in rural Maine It is rumored to be a cult where his many wives and children live off the land and off the grid The newest member fifteen year old Brianna Vandermast is fired up and ready for change Forming her own militia Bree spreads her vision by writing The Recipe an incendiary revolutionary document that winds up in the hands of wealthy elites including one who is about to have a fateful encounter with Gordon A chance drinking session during an airport layover brings Gordon together with multinational CEO Bruce Hummer Bruce hands Gordon a mysterious brass key which has the potential to spark the unrest that is stirring in Egypt Maine As word of The Recipe spreads myriad factions from across the country arrive at The Settlement wanting to make Gordon their poster boy Gordon soon finds himself at the center of an uprising the consequences of which no one can predict Voice of the Fish Lars Horn,2022-09-15 This book left me stunned Breathtaking in its scope and generosity We are in the midst of a transcendent talent Maaza Mengiste author of the Booker Prize shortlisted The Shadow King Rapturous Horn is the mystic s David Attenborough New York Times Book Review Lars Horn s Voice of the Fish winner of the Graywolf Press Nonfiction Prize is a kaleidoscopic hallucinatory memoir that explores the trans experience through meditations upon aquatic life and mythology set against the backdrop of travels in Russia and a debilitating injury that left Horn temporarily unable to speak read and write In their adept hands these poignant allusive shards take shape as a unified whole short vignettes about fish reliquaries and antiquities serve as interludes between and subtle reflections upon longer memories of their life knitting together a sinuous wave like form that flows across the book Horn swims through a range of subjects across marine history theology questions of the body and gender sexuality transmasculinity and illness From their childhood modelling for their mother s art installations immersed in a bath

Written on the Body Jane Caplan, 2021-10-12 Despite the social sciences growing fascination with tattooing and the immense popularity of tattoos themselves the practice has not left much of a historical record And until very recently there was no good context for writing a serious history of tattooing in the West This collection exposes for the first time the richness of the tattoo s European and American history from antiquity to the present day In the process it rescues tattoos from their stereotypical and sensationalized association with criminality The tattoo has long hovered in a space between the cosmetic and the punitive Throughout its history the status of the tattoo has been complicated by its dual association with slavery and penal practices on the one hand and exotic or forbidden sexuality on the other The tattoo appears often as an involuntary stigma sometimes as a self imposed marker of identity and occasionally as a beautiful corporal decoration This volume analyzes the tattoo s fluctuating often uncomfortable position from multiple angles Individual chapters explore fascinating segments of its history from the metaphorical meanings of tattooing in Celtic society to the class related commodification of the body in Victorian Britain from tattooed entertainers in Germany to tattooing and piercing as self expression in the contemporary United States But they also accumulate to form an expansive textured view of permanent bodily modification in the West By combining empirical history powerful cultural analysis and a highly readable style this volume both draws on and propels the ongoing effort to write a meaningful cultural history of the body The contributors representing several disciplines have all conducted extensive original research into the Western tattoo Together they have produced an unrivalled account of its history They are in addition to the editor Clare Anderson Susan Benson James Bradley Ian Duffield Juliet Fleming Alan Govenar Harriet Guest Mark Gustafson C P Jones Charles MacQuarrie Hamish Maxwell Stewart Stephan Oettermann Jennipher A Rosecrans and Abby Schrader
