Weale John WEALE (Bookseller.),1854 The Anticolonial Front John Munro,2017-09-21 This is a transnational history of the activist and intellectual network that connected the Black freedom struggle in the United States to liberation movements across the globe in the aftermath of World War II John Munro charts the emergence of an anticolonial front within the postwar Black liberation movement comprising organisations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People the Council on African Affairs and the American Society for African Culture and leading figures such as W E B Du Bois Claudia Jones Alphaeus Hunton George Padmore Richard Wright Esther Cooper Jackson Jack O Dell and C L R James Drawing on a diverse array of personal papers organisational records novels newspapers and scholarly literatures the book follows the fortunes of this political formation recasting the Cold War in light of decolonisation and racial capitalism and the postwar history of the United States in light of global developments The Church Builder ,1862 Law Books, 1876-1981 R.R. Bowker Company,1981 The Postcolonial World Jyotsna G. Singh,David D. Kim,2016-10-04 The Postcolonial World presents an overview of the field and extends critical debate in exciting new directions It provides an important and timely reappraisal of postcolonialism as an aesthetic political and historical movement and of postcolonial studies as a multidisciplinary transcultural field Essays map the terrain of the postcolonial as a global phenomenon at the intersection of several disciplinary inquiries Framed by an introductory chapter and a concluding essay the eight sections examine Affective Postcolonial Histories Postcolonial Desires Religious Imaginings Postcolonial Geographies and Spatial Practices Human Rights and Postcolonial Conflicts Postcolonial Cultures and Digital Humanities Ecocritical Inquiries in Postcolonial Studies Postcolonialism versus Neoliberalism The Postcolonial World looks afresh at re emerging conditions of postcoloniality in the twenty first century and draws on a wide range of representational strategies cultural practices material forms and affective affiliations The volume is an essential reading for scholars and students of postcolonialism Making Sense of Brexit Victor J. Seidler,2018-01-31 After the shock decision to leave the EU in 2016 what can we learn about our divided and increasingly unequal society and the need to listen to each other This engaging and accessible book addresses the causes and implications of Brexit exploring this moral anger against political elites and people feeling estranged from a political process and economic system that no longer expressed their will Seidler argues that we need new political imaginations across class race religion gender and sexuality to engage in issues about the scale and acceleration of urban change and the time people need to adjust to new realities He suggests we need to listen to people s concerns not only about the impact of immigration and globalisation on their lives but also about the injustice of a capitalist economy that makes them pay through austerity and cuts in social welfare for a financial crisis they were not responsible for He imagines alternative futures that will allow different generations to still appreciate themselves as Europeans with a future in Europe

Imperialisms E. Sauer, B. Rajan, 2004-10-28 Filling a major gap in historical literary and post colonial scholarship Imperialisms examines the identity statements of the world s major imperialisms in multiple theatres of competition over the course of four centuries Filling a major gap in historical literary and post colonial scholarship Imperialisms examines early identity statements and nuances of dominance of the world s major imperialisms in various theatres of competition Developed in collaboration with leading scholars in the field this book balances historical essays and case studies and encourages investigations of conversant and competing imperialisms their practices and rhetoric of self justification Europe west and east India the New World Africa and the Far East are among the sites of imperialism featured here which are analyzed in relation to intersecting debates on politics religion literature nationalism commerce conversion and race Valuable for preliminary or advanced studies Imperialisms provides multiple points of entry into and guidelines for a conversation both current and vigorous
