Paul And The Rhetoric Of Reconciliation:

Paul and the Rhetoric of Reconciliation Margaret M. Mitchell, 1993-01-01 This work casts new light on the genre function and composition of Paul's first letter to the Corinthians Margaret Mitchell thoroughly documents her argument that First Corinthians was a single letter not a combination of fragments whose aim was to persuade the Corinthian Christian community to become unified

Paul and the Creation of a Counter-Cultural Community Sin-pan Daniel Ho, 2015-02-26 This study offers a new interpretation of 1 Corinthians 5:11-13 Taking a social identity approach Ho investigates the inner logic of Paul from the ears of the Corinthian correspondence Ho argues that Paul consistently indoctrinates new values for the audience to uphold which are against the mainstream of social values in the surrounding society It is shown that Paul does not engage in issues of internal schism per se but rather in the question of the distinctive values insiders should uphold so as to be recognisable to outsiders While church is neither a sectarian nor an accommodating community it should maintain constant social contact with outsiders so as to bring the gospel of Christ to them In addition insiders should practice radical values that could challenge the existing shared social values prevalent in the urban city of Corinth These new values are based mainly on Scripture ancient Jewish literature and the new social identity of the church defined by Jesus Christ This fresh interpretation renders the logical flow unitary design and coherence of 1 Cor 5:11-13 more apparent

The Educated Elite in 1 Corinthians Robert Dutch, 2005-06-04 This book examines the educated elite in 1 Corinthians through the development and application of an ancient education model The research reads Paul's text within the social world of early Christianity and uses social scientific criticism in reconstructing a model that is appropriate for first century Corinth Pauline scholars have used models to reconstruct elite education but this study highlights their oversight in recognising the relevancy of the Greek Gymnasium for education Topics are examined in 1 Corinthians to demonstrate where the model advances an understanding of Paul's interaction with the elite Corinthian Christians in the context of community conflict This study demonstrates the important contribution that this ancient education model makes in interpreting 1 Corinthians in a Graeco Roman context This is Volume 271 of JSNTS

Liberating the Will of Australia Geoffrey Burn, 2020-08-03 Why do many First People in Australia find themselves continually under siege Why do many interventions fail to produce what was hoped for Why is it that when there have been many positive developments at some deep level nothing seems to have changed Will the Uluru Statement from the Heart ensure the future security of the First Peoples in Australia By developing strands from Christian theology Liberating the Will of Australia answers these questions in a way that gets to the heart of the problem It is shown that the way that the First Peoples were treated by the first European incomers became an indelible part of what Australia

currently is This explains why harm is often done even when good is intended and why some problems are too complex to solve But that does not mean that we need to be stuck in the past through deep repentance by the Subsequent Peoples much more than an apology we can take hold of the work of God to bring new things out of what is broken Ultimately this is profoundly hopeful Although focusing on Australia the theological tools developed can be applied in other colonial and post colonial contexts

Servants of Satan, False Brothers, and Other Opponents of Paul Jerry L. Sumney, 1999-12-01 This book sets out a method for identifying the opponents in view in Paul s letters and then applies it to the relevant writings of the Pauline corpus The method limits the use of parallels or prior constructions as a basis for identification dealing with each letter on an individual basis and taking full account of the historical and social context Sumney concludes that the Pauline letters address different kinds of opposition in different places including two distinct anti Paul movements Here is a fundamental study for research into a basic problem of the Pauline correspondence
