

T-TESS® Appraiser Sample Confirming Questions

1.21 Relationship to School Improvement:

- Does your school improvement plan include continuous improvement?
- How will pedagogical decisions align the resources to support leadership of the learning process?
- When did you start the collaboration, communication, and relationships that are recommended and encouraged by T-TESS?
- When did you complete our first implementation of a lesson or unit to provide appropriate time for reflection, time to assess, and revision?
- When did you identify our strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities that can demonstrate the effectiveness of our program?
- When was "leadership structures and processes" addressed in the inventory?
- When does the assessment of the lesson definition, objectives and learning goals align with the pedagogical?
- Are reflect cycles used with all pedagogical areas (instruction, curriculum, assessment) within the lesson? If so, why?

1.22 Classroom Assessment:

- What are assessments done to demonstrate the students' learning for this lesson?
- What are learning targets for each student to demonstrate growth and progress?
- What does your assessment decide immediately without interrupting instruction?
- What formative and summative assessments do you take to collect evidence of achievement? Are these aligned?
- How will your assessments relate to the following educational philosophy: adult learning and inquiry-based model?
- Are reflect cycles for your assessment repeated over time to demonstrate an alignment of T-TESS and your practice?
- How do reflect periods allow students to reflect their learning towards growth and improvement?
- How do your assessments measure rapport to your own learning, pedagogy, and effectiveness rather than their pedagogical effectiveness? Between what cycle did your assessment system last reflect? Why?
- Does this reflect your goals for student assessment?
- Without your assessment, did you notice any student need emerging related to this lesson?

1.23 Pedagogical and Educational:

- How will this lesson align with your learning needs identified based on pedagogical, educational, and instructional goals?
- How will this assessment demonstrate competency for students with identified learning needs?
- How will differentiation prove the effectiveness?
- How did your assessment relate to the learning targets and concepts?
- Within educational theory implemented during lessons, how were these models included in planning for instruction?
- Through assessments with different results grouped and assessed during the planning and instruction phases?
- Within students' learning struggles, when did you determine the causes and options that would help them succeed?
