Microelectronics and Pupils with Special Educational Needs John Garrett, Bob Dyke, 1988 The Films of Robert Wise Richard C. Keenan, 2007-08-22 From his early days as a film editor at RKO studios where he helped Orson Welles shape Citizen Kane to his success as a director and producer of musical blockbusters of the 1960s Robert Wise had a long and illustrious film career Unlike contemporaries such as Alfred Hitchcock John Ford or Howard Hawks however Wise's films lack any clearly discernible characteristics to signify his work There are few striking camera angles or visual flourishes that might distract from the primary obligation to present the story And like Hawks Wise never specialized in one or two genres but brought his directing skills to all manner of films His work as a director resists auteur categorization and that is a chief reason why some critics have been unduly negative in their consideration of his work In The Films of Robert Wise Richard Keenan examines the nearly forty features that represent the director's career from Curse of the Cat People in 1944 to A Storm in Summer 2001 the only television production Wise ever directed Keenan offers a reappraisal of Wise's films so that the true quality of his work can be better appreciated Keenan argues that if there was a flaw in Robert Wise as a director it was that he lacked the ego and temperament of the artist which was not necessarily a flaw at all Indeed Wise was a conscientious craftsman who saw his work not primarily as a vehicle for his own ideas and visual style but as an opportunity to present narrative that quite simply engages informs and entertains It was this perspective that helped produce a number of memorable films over the years including the gritty noir Born to Kill the one two punch of The Set Up and Somebody Up There Likes Me the sci fi prophecy The Day the Earth Stood Still and the gripping indictment of capital punishment I Want to Live classics all Wise also won a pair of Oscars for two of the most memorable not to mention successful musicals of all time West Side Story and The Sound of Music Drawing on more than 30 hours of interviews with Wise as well as additional interviews with a number of his collaborators Keenan offers a welcome reassessment of the director's work In his analysis of each film Keenan reveals both Wise the craftsman and the artist In doing so The Films of Robert Wise finally confers upon this underappreciated director the recognition he deserves I Know Me Marian Olivia Heath Griffin, 2020-10-30 It seems like yesterday that things that were happening in my life over seventy years ago demands that I trust in the loving purpose of a Sovereign God I have learned to trust that He is in control especially when life seems out of control I am prospering and am always hopeful because as a blessed African American woman I accept my responsibility to give back to the people in this country as much as it has given to me I will always acknowledge my roots as they are more important than ever I am an empty vessel but am versed with a spiritual being to complete a mission for God And I have an angel or angels who have guided me all my days They are sent from my Sovereign Creator *Educational Film/video Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R.
