Aftershock

The background image is a composite illustration depicting a catastrophic event. A colossal, curling tsunami wave, rendered in shades of blue and white, dominates the left and center of the frame, crashing towards a coastal city. The city, visible in the lower right, features a mix of modern and traditional architecture, including a prominent domed structure. In the background, behind the wave, a thick, billowing plume of red smoke or fire rises into the sky, suggesting a major disaster or conflict. The overall tone is one of intense drama and destruction.
