Seeing Red English Edition:

Seeing Red Jose P. Zagal, Benj Edwards, 2024-05-14 The curious history technology and technocultural context of Nintendo's short lived stereoscopic gaming console the Virtual Boy With glowing red stereoscopic 3D graphics the Virtual Boy cast a prophetic hue Shortly after its release in 1995 Nintendo's balance sheet for the product was in the red as well Of all the innovative long shots the game industry has witnessed over the years perhaps the most infamous and least understood was the Virtual Boy Why the Virtual Boy failed and where it succeeded are questions that video game experts Jos Zagal and Benj Edwards explore in Seeing Red but even more interesting to the authors is what the platform actually was what it promised how it worked and where it fit into the story of gaming Nintendo released the Virtual Boy as a standalone table top device in 1995 and quickly discontinued it after lackluster sales and a lukewarm critical reception In Seeing Red Zagal and Edwards examine the device's technical capabilities its games and the cultural context in the US in the 1990s when Nintendo developed and released the unusual console The Virtual Boy in their account built upon and extended an often forgotten historical tradition of immersive layered dioramas going back 100 years that was largely unexplored in video games at the time The authors also show how the platform's library of games conveyed a distinct visual aesthetic style that has not been significantly explored since the Virtual Boy's release having been superseded by polygonal 3D graphics The platform's meaning they contend lies as much in its design and technical capabilities and affordances as it does in an audience's perception of those capabilities Offering rare insight into how we think about video game platforms Seeing Red illustrates where perception and context come quite literally into play

Seeing Red Pauline Sameshima, 2007 A brilliant and daring piece of scholarship this book will raise eyebrows and spark much debate It does not simply break new ground it breaks all the rules ultimately compelling us to examine and embrace scholarship in fresh innovative ways Seeing Red is based on Pauline Sameshima's doctoral dissertation Winner of the 2007 Arts Based Educational Research ABER Outstanding Dissertation Award by the American Educational Research Association AERA This award is for the best dissertation that explores is an exemplar of and pushes the boundaries of arts based educational research The book showcases a PhD dissertation written in the form of an epistolary bildungsroman a didactic novel of personal developmental journeying The work is a fiction letters from a graduate student to the professor she is in love with embedded in developmental understanding of living the life of a teacher researcher The work shares the possibilities of how artful research informs processes of scholarly inquiry and honours the reader's multi perspective as integral to the research project's transformative potential Parallax is the apparent change of location of an object against a background due to a change in observer position or perspective shift The concept of parallax encourages researchers and teachers to acknowledge and value the power of their own and their readers and students shifting subjectivities and situatedness which directly influence the constructs of perception interpretation and learning The novel format ties themes and characters together just as storytelling can bind theory and practice Norman Denzin 2005 supports the pedagogical and libratory nature of the critical democratic storytelling imagination He hails this book as bold innovative a wild transformative text almost unruly a new vision for critical reflexive inquiry The love story and issues of teacher learner role boundaries are controversial and largely unspoken of in educational settings and the letter format is voyeuristic In this sense the audience is being given a peek a look at the unrevealed One of the advantages of the epistolary novel is its semblance of reality and the difficulty for readers to distinguish the text from genuine correspondence Wurzbach 1969 The genre allows the reader access to the writing character s intimate thoughts without perceived interference from the author s manipulation and conveys events with dramatic and sensational immediacy Carafi 1997

Robertson,2011-09-02 The first book to examine the role of Canada s newspapers in perpetuating the myth of Native inferiority Seeing Red is a groundbreaking study of how Canadian English language newspapers have portrayed Aboriginal peoples from 1869 to the present day It assesses a wide range of publications on topics that include the sale of Rupert s Land the signing of Treaty 3 the North West Rebellion and Louis Riel the death of Pauline Johnson the outing of Grey Owl the discussions surrounding Bill C 31 the Bended Elbow standoff at Kenora Ontario and the Oka Crisis The authors uncover overwhelming evidence that the colonial imaginary not only thrives but dominates depictions of Aboriginal peoples in mainstream newspapers The colonial constructs ingrained in the news media perpetuate an imagined Native inferiority that contributes significantly to the marginalization of Indigenous people in Canada That such imagery persists to this day suggests strongly that our country lives in denial failing to live up to its cultural mosaic boosterism Seeing Red Holley

Trent,2020-04-14 Megan Coffman needs to put her divorce from one of rock and roll s biggest womanizers behind her and fast Dubbed Poor Meg by the music media she s sick of being pitied and thinks the best way to show the public she s moved on is to flash her brand new engagement ring She didn t think she d need to follow up with a man and a wedding to go with that ring Russian expatriate Seth Rozhkov likes the idea of an instant family and agrees to play husband for a year for a virtual stranger At thirty five he s weary from batting zero in the dating game Women want him for just one thing and it s not a happily ever after Mutual friend Sharon swears if he plays his cards right he could have Meg for keeps He s willing to try Meg finds the gentle giant his friends call Red an enigma He s solicitous almost to a fault and the no strings attached sex is amazing but she s used to being used What s Seth getting out of the deal How can she trust a man who hasn t asked her for anything in return This is a revised second edition of the book first published by Lyrical Press Kensington in 2014 “A”

Season of High Adventure S. Bernard Thomas,2024-06-07 In 1928 Edgar Snow 1905 1972 set out to see the world hoping to make his mark as a travel adventure writer Shanghai was to be a mere stopover but Snow stayed on in China for thirteen more years The idealistic young Midwesterner became a journalist and ultimately developed close friendships with China s emerging revolutionary leaders His 1938 classic Red Star over China strongly influenced American views of the Chinese Communists and is still in print nearly sixty years later This biography breaks fresh ground with its unique and extensive use of Snow s diaries of over forty years These writings convey Snow s private hopes and fears his moods and motivations Thomas skillfully links them with Snow s public writings and deeds By recreating the milieu in which Snow worked in China Thomas provides a clearer understanding of both the man and his times Snow came to China devoid of any political agenda or sinological background He returned home a politically astute China hand and famed journalist author His writing had taken on the nature of political action which resulted in troubled soul searching that Snow usually confined to his diary Thomas s portrait of Ed Snow reveals a man caught up in an important historical moment a man who profoundly influenced and was influenced by the events that swirled around him This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1997 *Catalogue of the Public Documents of the ... Superintendent of Documents,1929 Max Weber and the Path from Political Economy to Economic Sociology Christopher Adair-Toteff,2021-11-01 This book examines the largely neglected shift in Max Weber s work from political economy to economic sociology Considering the importance of his recognition made during his research on the Protestant Ethic of the reciprocal influences that exist between economics and society and the role of this realization in prompting him to rethink the study of political economy the author sheds fresh light on his emerging belief that the study of the relationship between economic factors and social issues required a new discipline A study that charts an important development in the thought of one of the founding figures of sociology this volume will appeal to scholars of social theory with interests in the history of the field and the legacy of Max Weber Colouring Meaning Gill Philip,2011-02-23 Primarily focused on idioms and other figurative phraseology Colouring Meaning describes how the meanings of established phrases are enhanced refocused and modified in everyday language use Unlike many studies of creativity in language this book length survey addresses the matter at several levels from the purely linguistic level of collocation through its abstractions in colligation and semantic preference to semantic prosody and connotation This journey through both linguistic and cognitive levels involves the examination of habitual language and its exploitations both mundane and colourful explaining the phenomena observed in terms of current psycholinguistic research as well as corpus linguistics theory and analysis The relationships between meaning in text and meaning in the mind are discussed at length and extensively illustrated with worked case studies to offer the reader a comprehensive overview of metaphorical and other secondary meanings as they emerge in real world communicative situations

Painting the Town Red Bob Dent, 2018-03-20 The intensely political cultural production that erupted during Hungary's short lived Soviet Republic of 1919 encompassed music art literature film and theatre Painting the Town Red is the little known history of these developments The book opens with an overview of the political context in Hungary after the First World War and how the Soviet Republic emerged in the chaotic months which followed the collapse of the Austro Hungarian Dual Monarchy It looks at the subsequent roles during the Soviet Republic of artists film makers actors musicians and writers and the attitude of the newly established People's Commissariat for Education and Culture in which the future internationally renowned Marxist Gyorgy Lukacs played a leading role At its centre are the questions why did so many prominent people in the arts world participate in the Soviet Republic and why did their initial enthusiasm later subside Painting the Town Red is an important contribution to the lively debate about the interaction between art and politics

Mysticism and Intellect in Medieval Christianity and Buddhism Yongho Francis Lee, 2020-03-09 Mysticism and Intellect in Medieval Christianity and Buddhism explores two influential intellectual and religious leaders in Christianity and Buddhism Bonaventure c 1217-74 and Chinul 1158-1210 a Franciscan theologian and a Korean Zen master respectively with respect to their lifelong endeavors to integrate the intellectual and spiritual life so as to achieve the religious aims of their respective religious traditions It also investigates an associated tension between different modes of discourse relating to the divine or the ultimate positive cataphatic discourse and negative apophatic discourse Both of these modes of discourse are closely related to different ways of understanding the immanence and transcendence of the divine or the ultimate Through close studies of Bonaventure and Chinul the book presents a unique dialogue between Christianity and Buddhism and between West and East

Remolding and Resistance Among Writers of the Chinese Prison Camp Philip Williams, Yenna Wu, 2006-10-03 Even in the twenty first century the contemporary Chinese prison camp remains a more obscure and poorly understood realm than the Forbidden City of old Apolitical service organizations such as the International Red Cross have routinely been denied access to PRC prison camps and prison camp inmates who have smuggled out frank unofficial accounts of their incarceration have only been published overseas and often had their sentences extended as a result Presenting extensive analysis of literary and biographical accounts this illuminating book provides a window to the affective side and emotional tenor of day to day life in modern day labour camps With contributions from well known and respected scholars the book covers the contentious issues of prison economics prisoner remolding and post traumatic stress disorder Drawing parallels with Soviet Nazi and Japanese prison camp practice this outstanding new book will be invaluable to those interested in how the human mind responds to extremity as well as to scholars of Chinese history politics literature and sociology
