Stern,Gianni Zanini,2013-10-10 There are many textbooks devoted to international trade but few volumes that survey trade theory policy and negotiations in a concise up to date manner from an interdisciplinary perspective This book provides a comprehensive overview of the issues that dominate both academic discourse and the policymaking arena in the field of international trade bringing to bear the insights of economics law and political science It also stands out by virtue of its emphasis on the development implications of trade an increasingly useful perspective given the deepening liberalization of developing and emerging market economies and their growing importance in the world economy The volume examines the full range of trade policy topics that dominate contemporary debates such as rules of origin trade in services competition public procurement and trade facilitation plus emergent controversial topics like trade related labour standards and environmental issues It analyses the international trade architecture and the institutional and practical aspects of policymaking and negotiations at the unilateral multilateral and regional level as well as the effects of trade on economic growth inequality and poverty It also explores the sharp increase in the number of preferential trade agreements and their significance for the global trade system The treatment of each issue is rigorous yet highly accessible to anyone with a basic background in economics law and international political economy Corruption in Infrastructure Procurement Emmanuel Kingsford Owusu,Albert P.C. Chan,2020-11-01 This book presents an extensive study on the extant constructs of corruption in infrastructure related projects and aims to contribute to the determination and elimination of its incidence and prevalence in infrastructure projects. The book conducts a comprehensive examination of the various determining factors of corruption that negatively affect the procurement process and in the end result in cost and time overruns. The authors present an in-depth understanding of how the identified determining factors of corruption can be addressed. Thus, it is intended to broaden the reader's knowledge of the causes, risk indicators, and different forms of corrupt practices in the procurement process of infrastructure works before explaining how they affect its stages and activities. A dynamic model is developed to demonstrate how to tackle the overall impact of corruption within the procurement process and at the same time increase the effectiveness of the extant anti-corruption measures. In short, this book demonstrates that the fight against corruption in the procurement process is strategically feasible and must continue. This book is essential reading for academics, researchers, professionals, and stakeholders in the procurement of infrastructure projects and civil works as well as those with an interest in corruption, construction management, and construction project management.

Mapping Governance Innovations

Sangita Dhal, Nachiketa Singh, Amir Mohammad Nasrullah, 2024-08-21. This volume explores the nature, success, and challenges of governance innovations in South Asia. It compares innovations and reforms that have been undertaken specifically in Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka. It examines how these South Asian nations have fared in promoting the values of good governance both at the national and local levels. The volume focuses mainly on three themes: innovations and reforms in public administration, e-governance, public service delivery, and innovations in local governance. It assesses how South Asian countries have sought to mitigate the challenges of governance and overcome the obstacles that characterized the transition from the old traditional architecture of governance to the new and modern technologically enabled models of governance. Lucid and topical, this book will be of great interest to scholars of politics, public administration, and governance, public policy, public management, international relations, development studies, and related social science disciplines.

Competitiveness and Private Sector Development Competitiveness in South East Europe 2021: A Policy Outlook. OECD, 2021-07-05. The future sustainable economic development and well-being of citizens in South East Europe depend on greater economic competitiveness.
