Intra-Africa Student Mobility in Higher Education Chika Trevor Schoole, Jenny J. Lee, 2022-01-01 This book examines student mobility within Africa International student mobility is among the central activities of higher education internationalization As the number of international students increase so do the destinations in both number and geographic diversity Historically international student mobility has followed South North and North North patterns However recent literature show the growth in North South and South South patterns of student mobility There has also been a rise in regional mobility In what is referred to in the book as intra Africa mobility the books explores and analyzes the patterns of intra Africa mobility based on seven African countries South Africa Kenya Uganda Nigeria Ghana Senegal and Egypt The editors and contributors address three central research questions Why did the students choose the country they are studying in Why did they choose the institution they are studying in What are their academic and social experiences in these countries and their respective institutions This book is the first comprehensive exploration of intra Africa student mobility in a field that traditionally centers on the Global North

National Child-focused Policy Research Agenda 2016-2020, 2016

Access, Quality, and the Global Learning Crisis Sarah Kabay, 2021-08-26 Around the world 250 million children cannot read write or perform basic mathematics They represent almost 40% of all primary school aged children This situation has come to be called the global learning crisis and it is one of the most critical challenges facing the world today Work to address this situation depends on how it is understood Typically the global learning crisis and efforts to improve primary education are defined in relation to two terms access and quality This book is focused on the connection between them Through a mixed methods case study it provides detailed contextualized analysis of Ugandan primary education As one of the first countries in Sub Saharan Africa to enact dramatic and far reaching primary education policy Uganda serves as a compelling case study With both quantitative and qualitative data from over 400 Ugandan schools and communities the book analyzes grade repetition private primary schools and school fees viewing each issue as an illustration of the connection between access to education and education quality This analysis finds evidence of a positive association challenging a key assumption that there is a trade off or disconnect between efforts to improve access to education and efforts to improve education quality Embracing the complexity of education systems and focusing on dynamics where improvements in access and quality can be mutually reinforcing can be a new approach for improving basic education in different contexts around the world

Domestic and Regional Environmental Laws and Policies in Africa Jean-Claude N. Ashukem, Semie M.

Sama, 2023-11-10 This book explores African domestic and regional responses and approaches to environmental protection and sustainability Written by African experts the collection consists of five parts covering the whole of Africa It provides broad coverage of specific themes including environmental constitutionalism climate change gender and the environment wildlife trade environmental justice and human displacement The key aims are first to explore theoretical and empirical studies to interrogate and provide clarity on academic discourse on how and whether environmental human rights approaches and policy implications have effectively enhanced environmental protection and sustainability at African domestic levels Second to investigate and present innovative solutions on how African domestic legal regimes deal with environmental justice natural resources governance refugees environmental rights and climate induced displaced persons Finally to propose innovative legal and institutionalised solutions to Africa s ecological realities by determining the legal and regulatory gaps on environmental human rights issues on the continent The collection will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policymakers in human rights law environmental law political science ecology and conservation environmental management disaster management and development studies

Transforming Tertiary Agricultural Education in Africa David Kraybill, John Lynam, Adipala Ekwamu, 2021-11-24 Enormous changes are affecting African production agriculture urbanization and food consumption patterns requiring new approaches to training and knowledge generation and dissemination to achieve food security Many agricultural universities and other tertiary agricultural education TAE organizations have been slow to respond hindered by inadequate staffing and facilities and growing competition for funds However some African agricultural universities are transforming themselves and are achieving remarkable success This book documents successful approaches to remaking TAE in Africa to inspire leaders both formal and informal of other TAE organizations It emphasises adaptive strategies and processes creating an internal culture driven by stakeholder needs and where organizational transformation improves the quality and relevance of teaching research and outreach The chapters cover the role of TAE in agricultural transformation trends in TAE in Africa solutions to the rigour versus relevance dilemma curriculum design informed by actual and emerging labour market conditions innovation and entrepreneurship TAE quality assurance and networking among TAE institutions

Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University Kronstad Felde, Tor Halvorsen, 2021-09-20 Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University is set against the backdrop of the spread of neoliberal ideas and reforms since the 1980s While accepting that these ideas are rooted in a longer history the authors reveal how neoliberalism has transformed the university sector and the academic profession In particular they focus on how understandings of what knowledge is relevant and how this is decided have changed Taken as a whole reforms have sought to reorient universities and academics towards economic development in various ways Shifts in how institutions and academics achieve recognition and status combined with the flow of public funds away from the universities and the increasing privatisation of educational services are steadily downgrading the value of public higher education As research universities adopt user and market oriented operating models and prioritise the demands of the corporate sector in their research agendas the sale of intellectual property is increasingly becoming a primary criterion for determining the relevance of academic knowledge All these changes have largely succeeded in transforming the discourse around the role of the academic profession in society In this context Makerere University in Uganda has been lauded as having successfully achieved transformation However far from highlighting the allegedly positive outcomes of this reform this book provides worrying insights into the dissolution of Ugandas academic culture Drawing on interviews with over ninety academics at Makerere University from deans to doctoral students the authors provide first hand accounts of the pressures and problems the reforms have created Disempowered overworked and under resourced many academics are forced to take on consultancy work to make ends meet The evidence presented here stands in stark contrast to the successes claimed by the university However as the authors also show local resistance to the neoliberal model is rising as academics begin to collaborate to regain control over what knowledge is considered relevant and wrestle with deepening democracy The authors careful expos of how neoliberalism devalues academic knowledge and the urgency of countering this trend makes Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University highly relevant for anyone working in higher education or involved in shaping policy for this sector

Ugandan English Christiane Meierkord, Bebwa Isingoma, Saudah Namyalo, 2016-10-20 Ugandan English is a variety that has scarcely been noticed in past research This timely volume brings together African and European scholars in a first ever collection of articles that offer comprehensive discussions of the historical and present day sociolinguistics of English in Uganda and fine grained analyses of the structural characteristics of and attitudes to this hitherto largely unknown variety Using rich archive corpus and interview data as well as ethnographic and observational methods the various contributions paint a comprehensive picture of Ugandan English as distinct from other East African Englishes and as characterized by nativisation despite a still strong exonormative orientation reflecting the modern nation s status as a post protectorate under the influence of globalisation Apart from advancing our understanding of Ugandan English itself the individual chapters contribute to theoretical debates on language contact and variation as regards the influence of substrate languages founder populations language ideologies and socio economic factors
