Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

A Penny for My Thoughts Weston Tawonezvi, 2025-03-04 Delving into various aspects of the author's life and Zimbabwean culture in general this literary project speaks to both those familiar with Weston's life as well as those who may have missed some of his experiences For those feeling compelled to also share their life stories this book serves as a proxy for their thoughts I relate so readily to most of this book having shared similar situations around our executive roles in the financial services sector community assignments including our footprints in church schools and parishes the sporting world of squash and golf as well as race relations in the working environment With eloquence and depth the author weaves a story that resonates with citizens who experienced life under varying political eras the robust colonial Rhodesia early independent Zimbabwe and the current state of affairs offering a comprehensive view of the last half century Despite the author's extensive travel and exposure that enables the book to cater to a global audience the narrative remains grounded in Zimbabwean settings Across its magnetic pages the author s storytelling captures intimate moments personal insights and vivid anecdotes adding flavor to the whole project The author generously shares personal and family insights including some content that I think would be more suitable for posthumous publication This book is a testament to a life well lived providing timely and insightful storytelling I invite you to delve into its pages and explore the rich narrative crafted by the author a privilege and honor to experience What an honor it was for me Bernard Gabriel interest in sport South Africa-China Relations Chris Alden,Yu-Shan Wu,2021-01-23 With the pace of trade and investment picking up coupled with closer international cooperation with Beijing through the G20 FOCAC and BRICS grouping South Africa China ties are assuming a significant position in continental and even global affairs At the same time it is a relationship of paradoxes breaking with many of the assumptions that underpin contemporary analyses of China Africa ties This edited volume examines the South Africa China relationship through a survey of its diplomatic partnership economic ties and broader community relations These important aspects that are often conflated as a single relationship yet what is important to explore are how these components reflect different China South Africa relationship s and how they intersect

HIV/AIDS and the South African State Dr Annamarie Bindenagel Šehović,2014-04-28 For three decades post apartheid the HIV AIDS epidemic from first acknowledgement to its management as a chronic disease demanded unparalleled attention This was nowhere more evident than in South Africa This book explores how the state responded to its responsibilities to defend and protect human security Linking this to the role of the state as sovereign protector and provider of security it applies the findings to the broader re interpretation of sovereign responsibility in the 21st Century This book does not seek to absolve the South African state of its responsibility to respond Moreover it argues that although the state the government before during and after the transition to democracy was aware of and acknowledged the threat political economic and social posed by the epidemic it nonetheless chose not to make the epidemic a priority policy issue As a result it argues that the South African HIV AIDS case illustrates the tension inherent between a state s ultimate sovereign responsibility to respond and its tactical dependence on external contributors to meet the demands of all of its constituents
