

4 | Setting

The setting of a story usually reflects its atmosphere. Atmosphere describes the mood of a story. Many works of fiction use setting as a mirror of the subjects of the stories, which the story occurs. Setting thus lays down expectations for the reader. Readers need that writing fiction is a craft and authors carefully select which details to include or leave out. By focusing on one aspect of setting, authors may be making a social commentary. Indeed, some of the most interesting stories are about characters who behave in stark contrast to the expectations produced by the setting.

B² | Digging Deeper: Analyzing Setting in "Persepolis"

For each panel below, identify the type(s) of setting and provide a commentary of how Satrapi employs the setting to develop characters, themes, and the story.
