American Artifacts of Personal Adornment, 1680-1820 Carolyn L. White, 2005-09-08. Bracelets, buckles, buttons and beads, clasps, combs and chains. Items of personal adornment fill museum collections and are regularly uncovered in historical period archaeological excavations. But until the publication of this comprehensive volume there has been no basic guide to help curators, registrars, historians, archaeologists or collectors identify this class of objects from colonial and early republican America. Carolyn L. White helps the reader understand and interpret these artifacts, discussing their source, manufacture, materials, function and value in early American life. She uses them as a window on personal identity, showing how gender, age, ethnicity and class were often displayed through the objects worn. White draws not only on the items themselves but uses their portrayal in art, contemporary writings, advertisements and business records to assess their meaning to their owners. A reference volume for the shelf of anyone interested in early American material culture. Over 100 illustrations and tables.
