- Keywords: life satisfaction, population, aging, well-being, happiness. Abstract: This study aims to explore the relationship between life satisfaction and aging in a population of 60-year-olds and older. The study was conducted in a community-based setting and involved a sample of 100 participants. The results show that life satisfaction is positively related to age, with older individuals reporting higher levels of life satisfaction than younger individuals. The study also found that life satisfaction is positively related to social support, with individuals who have a strong social network reporting higher levels of life satisfaction. The study has implications for the development of interventions to improve life satisfaction in older adults.
