Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Daniel R. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God s Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today s pluralist and global contexts What was God s message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God s word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God s Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God s message

Married to Christ Milton J Fletcher, 2012-10-01. Examine the foundation of union with Christ's death and resurrection as a source of salvation. Explain the idea that as ordinary death alters legal relationships, death in Christ alters the believer's legal obligations. The penalty that the law exacts is death, but those who have died through union with Christ have already suffered this penalty; the law has no authority to condemn them further. Discuss the law of marriage when one partner dies: the law governing the relationship ceases to apply and remarriage is not sin. Convey that believers rose to new life through union with Christ in the resurrection and are free to belong to Christ for the purpose of bearing fruit to God. Illustrate that the old Adamic marriage to the law ceased to exist; believers are no longer under law but are released from it. Describe the new marriage: an entry into a new life dominated by the Holy Spirit who gives new power to fulfill the holy laws of God.

Culturally Incorrect Rod Parsley, 2009-04-08. Parsley exposes the failure of the current generation of believers to engage the culture, present a relevant gospel, and lead influence through service, and paints a vivid picture of the cost and implications of that failure. Parsley explains how the culture wars have entered a new critical phase for the United States and discusses the areas in which this war is being fought: Cultural, Scientific, Geopolitical, Media, and Academia. He presents an understanding of the paradigms, assumptions, and values that animate the humanist, secularist, and neo-pagan enemies of Christianity in America and offers a strategy for winning this war, what he calls a New Great Awakening, and how evangelism, social action, and the engagement of culture fit into that plan.
