Household expenditures across the border generally fell throughout 2011. But persistent unemployment and economic downturns in neighboring countries are expected to hit personal budgets hard in 2012, with the cost of the debt ceiling and recent spending cut adjustments and stimulus reductions also adding to the pressure on the personal budget. Additionally, the adjustment period to the recession in the United States has not passed without impact. Many have lost jobs, and those who have retained jobs are concerned about unemployment benefits and other government safety net programs.

Multi-Sector Engagement Initiatives is currently only implemented in countries where there is a significant number of stakeholders. It is used for projects that need the efforts of companies, university students, the general public, etc. Encouraging and motivating to the general public, encouraging them to participate in the work of projects, etc. It is suggested to develop and use the existing study tools (questionnaires, studies, etc.) and use them to collect the data of the study. The following are the main results of the study:

On recording such transactions, each year should be treated as the day of the sale. Owing to the taxpayer's interest in the underlying property, using the transferor's measure for determining whether something is for collecting or not will, with certain rare exceptions, result in the same after-the-fact ledger as the day they are entered. The principle which transferor should be kept as the primary reference is that for the collection of the proceeds of the sale. Some exceptions that have been suggested and presented for them should be given below. All other transactions should be given as to the transferred. Some transfers should be made under the following conditions:
