An Appeal for Financial Aid Lincoln Highway Association, 1913*

Verification Survey National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA), 2009 More than three in four college financial aid offices reported an increase in the number of cases where they must verify information on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid FAFSA according to the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators NASFAA s latest Quick Scan Survey The increase in the number of verification cases was likely to affect two year colleges and low income students The increases in verification cases couldn t come at a worse time NASFAA Interim President and CEO Joan Crissman said Many financial aid offices are already stretched thin trying to handle record numbers of financial aid applications awards and appeals at the same time they are working to comply with a host of new requirements In addition the increase in verification means that more students have to overcome an additional hurdle to access student aid funds Seventy eight percent of the 729 financial aid offices that completed the survey between October 19 and October 23 reported an increase in the number of aid applicants selected for verification by the U S Department of Education in the 2009 10 award year compared to the previous year Thirty one percent reported an increase below 10 percent while 22 percent reported an increase between 11 20 percent Twelve percent reported an increase of more than 30 percent and 17 percent reported no increase or a decrease NASFAA conducted the survey after hearing anecdotal evidence that the numbers of students chosen for verification had been increasing for the last two years
