The Extinction of Experience Christine Rosen, 2024-09-10 An Esquire Best Book of 2024 A reflective original invitation to recover and cultivate the human experiences that have atrophied in our virtual world We embraced the mediated life from Facetune and Venmo to meme culture and the Metaverse because these technologies offer novelty and convenience But they also transform our sense of self and warp the boundaries between virtual and real What are the costs Who are we in a disembodied world In The Extinction of Experience Christine Rosen investigates the cultural and emotional shifts that accompany our embrace of technology In warm philosophical prose Rosen reveals key human experiences at risk of going extinct including face to face communication sense of place authentic emotion and even boredom Considering cultural trends like TikTok challenges and mukbang and politically unsettling phenomena like sociometric trackers and online conspiracy culture Rosen exposes an unprecedented shift in the human condition one that habituates us to alienation and control To recover our humanity and come back to the real world we must reclaim serendipity community patience and risk

The English Professor Margaret R. O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary,2016-02-04 Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue The English Professor by authors Margaret R O Leary and Dennis S O Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post bellum era Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism When Professor O Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States

Voicing Code in STEM Pratim Sengupta,Amanda Dickes,Amy Voss Farris,2021-03-09 An exploration of coding that investigates the interplay between computational abstractions and the fundamentally interpretive nature of human experience The importance of coding in K 12 classrooms has been taken up by both scholars and educators Voicing Code in STEM offers a new way to think about coding in the classroom one that goes beyond device level engagement to consider the interplay between computational abstractions and the fundamentally interpretive nature of human experience Building on Mikhail Bakhtin s notions of heterogeneity and heteroglossia the authors explain how STEM coding can be understood as voicing computational utterances rather than a technocentric framing of building computational artifacts Empirical chapters illustrate this theoretical stance by investigating different framings of coding as voicing
