The Legality and Accountability of Autonomous Weapon Systems Afonso Seixas-Nunes, 2022-05-19 A comprehensive definition of autonomous weapons systems and their operation and what happens when they cause violations of international law

From Head Shops to Whole Foods Joshua C. Davis, 2017-08-08 In the 1960s and 70s a diverse range of storefronts including head shops African American bookstores feminist businesses and organic grocers brought the work of the New Left Black Power feminism environmentalism and other movements into the marketplace Through shared ownership limited growth and democratic workplaces these activist entrepreneurs offered alternatives to conventional profit driven corporate business models By the middle of the 1970s thousands of these enterprises operated across the United States but only a handful survive today Some such as Whole Foods Market have abandoned their quest for collective political change in favor of maximizing profits Vividly portraying the struggles successes and sacrifices of these unlikely entrepreneurs From Head Shops to Whole Foods writes a new history of social movements and capitalism by showing how activists embraced small businesses in a way few historians have considered The book challenges the widespread but mistaken idea that activism and political dissent are inherently antithetical to participation in the marketplace Joshua Clark Davis uncovers the historical roots of contemporary interest in ethical consumption social enterprise buying local and mission driven business while also showing how today's companies have adopted the language but not often the mission of liberation and social change

The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner, 2024-03-15 In The Geography of Injustice Barak Kushner argues that the war crimes tribunals in East Asia formed and cemented national divides that persist into the present day In 1946 the Allies convened the Tokyo Trial to prosecute Japanese wartime atrocities and Japan's empire At its conclusion one of the judges voiced dissent claiming that the justice found at Tokyo was only the sham employment of a legal process for the satisfaction of a thirst for revenge War crimes tribunals Kushner shows allow for the history of the defeated to be heard In contemporary East Asia a fierce battle between memory and history has consolidated political camps across this debate The Tokyo Trial courtroom as well as the thousands of other war crimes tribunals opened in about fifty venues across Asia were legal stages where prosecution and defense curated facts and evidence to craft their story about World War Two These narratives and counter narratives form the basis of postwar memory concerning Japan's imperial aims across the region The archival record and the interpretation of court testimony together shape a competing set of histories for public consumption The Geography of Injustice offers compelling evidence that despite the passage of seven decades since the end of the war East Asia is more divided than united by history

Brexit and After Kumiko Haba, Martin Holland, 2020-12-12 This book makes a new departure from others on the subject Not only does it analyze Brexit from the domestic point of view in the UK democracy social analysis and construction of new institutionalization with the EU it extends the analysis externally and reconsiders the EU and UK relationship with Asia and the implications for international relations and a new world order From this foundation

this book presents a broad and diverse spectrum of views concerning Brexit and the EU For these reasons it serves as an original and excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate students as well as for researchers of the EU and international relations Contributions to this volume are from the European Union Studies Association EUSA Asia Pacific Tokyo Conference and affiliated conferences at the following universities between 2017 19 Aoyama Gakuin University Tokyo Taiwan National University Taipei and Fudan University Shanghai Almost all of the authors have engaged in interdisciplinary research on the EU are members of the EUSA Asia Pacific and have made public presentations on Brexit and how it relates to the EU Asia international relations economics and institutions Therefore this book presents various aspects of Brexit and its aftermath from the perspectives of the disciplines of political science economics and international relations in its analysis of the UK the EU Asia and the future world order The EUSA Presidents and executive committee members participated in the Asia Pacific Conference postgraduate student workshops were organized and their presentations moderated thereby guaranteeing both the quality of the contributions to this book as well as encouraging young talented scholars to write about Brexit and the EU While many books on Brexit have been published this book offers many new and perspectives that provide suggestions for possible solutions to the problems facing the UK and the EU after Brexit

The Tyranny of the Straight Line Min-Kyung Lee, 2024-04-02 A revolutionary study of nineteenth century Parisian cartography and its role in shaping a modern conception of space Maps are rarely given the same attention as other print media or art forms in urban history Author Min Kyung Lee shows their rich potential in this lavishly illustrated study which brings together maps and other archival materials along with drawings and paintings She works across disciplines to examine mapping practices in the development of nineteenth century Paris and the transformative role that urban mapping had on the city's modernization Lee investigates Paris's formation as a modern city ultimately framing the practice of cartography as a catalyst for the emergence of new spatial and compositional theories Beginning with an examination of the emblematic urban plan that Napoleon III gave to the prefect of the Seine Georges Eugène Haussmann in 1853 Lee explores the significance of the map itself the means of its production through surveying the methods of its use and reception by architects engineers and administrators and its place in the visual culture of Paris's modernization At the heart of this exploration is a focus on orthography in architecture and the new quality of exactitude in modern mapping practices The precise grid structure of orthographic maps and plans evinced a sense of objectivity yet it was not without political context and social consequences as Lee demonstrates throughout

The Changing Practices of International Law Tanja Aalberts, Thomas Gammeltoft-Hansen, 2018-04-05 With more than 158 000 treaties and some 125 judicial organisations international law has become an inescapable factor in world politics since the Second World War In recent years however international law has also been increasingly challenged as states are voicing concerns that it is producing unintended effects and accuse international courts of judicial activism This book provides an important corrective to existing theories of international law by focusing on how states respond to increased legalisation and rely on legal expertise to manoeuvre within and against international law Through a number of case studies covering a wide range of topical issues such as surveillance environmental regulation migration and foreign investments the book argues that the expansion and increased institutionalisation of international law itself have created the structural premise for this type of politics of international law More international law paradoxically increases states political room of manoeuvre in world society

India China L.H.M. Ling, Adriana Erthal Abdenur, Payal Banerjee, Nimmi Kurian, Mahendra P. Lama, Li Bo, 2021-03-11 Challenging the Westphalian view of international relations which focuses on the sovereignty of states and the inevitable potential for conflict the authors from the Borderlands Study Group reconceive borders as capillaries enabling the flow of material cultural and social benefits through local communities nation states and entire regions By emphasizing local agency and regional interdependencies this metaphor reconfigures current narratives about the China India border and opens a new perspective on the long history of the Silk Roads the modern BCIM Initiative and dam construction along the Nu River in China and the Teesta River in India Together the authors show that positive interaction among people on both sides of a border generates larger cross border communities which can pressure for cooperation and development India China offers the hope that people divided by arbitrary geo political boundaries can circumvent race gender class religion and other social barriers to form more inclusive institutions and forms of governance

Border Water Stephen P. Mumme, 2023-03-21 This is the first scholarly study to detail the history and international politics of managing water flowing across the U S Mexico border Written from both a historical and political science perspective the study's primary aim is to provide students and scholars with a reliable one volume account of the history of binational cooperation on transboundary water management for the 70 year period under consideration The historical narrative relies on archival sources interviews government documents advocacy organizations reports and correspondence and a wide ranging canvas of scholarly and popular press materials focused on transboundary water management The author offers a unique periodization for better understanding developments in international cooperation through time

Nation-Building in the Baltic States Gundar J. King, David E. McNabb, 2014-08-26 The product of more than twenty years of research first person observations discussions and policy analyses Nation Building in the Baltic States Transforming Governance Social Welfare and Security in Northern Europe explores the characteristics of the Baltic states as positioned in the northeast corridor in terms of military strife and polity development such as democratization It details governments efforts to abet transparency and trust by way of developing new public and private institutions for advancements like innovation and private wealth creation The book examines the effects of various factors of economic and social adjustments in Estonia Latvia and Lithuania The authors explore the opportunities and problems that have shaped the region s progress in the process of rebuilding democratic institutions and nation states after regaining their independence They then describe the region s progress in laying the critical internal foundation necessary for maintaining their political independence The book also reviews the progress made in strengthening what the authors believe are key social functions of government in what the EU describes as its social market system the provision of social welfare services that meets the needs of all The book concludes with a realistic picture of future hurdles for this region looking at lingering challenges and regional instabilities policy mistakes not to be made again and recommendations for national planning and resource management Going beyond a massive single explanation of recent Baltic developments the book provides a broad picture of development of social and political trends and insights with separate evaluations of issues in the process of national transformation It provides a foundation examining the forces that will shape the future of the Baltic states
