Immigration, Citizenship and Insecurity Heli Askola,2025-06-06 Immigration Citizenship and Insecurity An Australian

Story explores how Australia's policies on migration and nationality have shaped citizenship and social inclusion. The book examines the historical and contemporary intersections of citizenship, migration and insecurity, analysing key issues such as the prioritisation of economic utility in migration policy, cultural expectations placed on newcomers and the role of migrants in political debate. It critically assesses Australia's responses to challenges such as demographic ageing, cultural diversity and erosion of political authority. The impact of emergency measures during the COVID-19 pandemic is also explored, revealing the fragility of citizenship protections in times of crisis. This book is an essential resource for scholars, policy makers and professionals in migration studies, political science and public policy, as well as anyone interested in the evolving dynamics of citizenship and migration in Australia and beyond.

10 Years of Ethnopharmacology Michael Heinrich, 2020-07-08. The contributions selected for this ebook span the entire ten-year period and we have selected examples which have had a particular impact on the debates in the field. Broadly speaking, they fall into four main areas: Overarching reviews within ethnopharmacology; Reviews of specific species or other taxa regarding their pharmacology, phytochemistry and local traditional use; Assessments of the pharmacological evidence for specific active compounds or classes of compounds; Assessments of the safety and potential risks of herbal substances. With these themes, this eBook contributes to the debate about the evidence base of such practices, incorporating both the scientific evidence available and the local traditional concepts associated with their use.
