American Taboo Lauren Rosewarne, 2013-08-13 America's often unspoken morality codes make many topics taboo in the land of the free. This book analyzes hundreds of popular culture examples to expose how the media both avoids and alludes to how we derive pleasure from our bodies. Flatulence, male nudity, abortion, masturbation—these are just a few of the taboo topics in the United States. What do culturally enforced silences about certain subjects say about our society and our latent fears? This work provides a broad yet detailed overview of popular culture's most avoided topics to explain why they remain off limits and examines how they are presented in contemporary media or in many cases delicately explored using euphemism and innuendo. The author offers a fascinating in-depth analysis of the meaning behind these portrayals of a variety of both mundane and provocative taboos and identifies how new television programs, films, and advertising campaigns intentionally violate longstanding cultural taboos to gain an edge in the marketplace. From Tired to Inspired Mary Kim Shreck, 2012-12-05 Discover research-based tips and strategies to improve literacy from upper elementary to secondary school classrooms. Teacher TV Mary M. Dalton, Laura R. Linder, 2008 Teacher TV: Sixty Years of Teachers on Television examines some of the most influential teacher characters presented on television from the earliest sitcoms to contemporary dramas and comedies. Both topical and chronological, the book follows a general course across decades and focuses on dominant themes and representations, linking some of the most popular shows of the era to larger cultural themes. Some of these include a view of how gender is socially constructed in popular culture and in society, racial tensions throughout the decades, educational privileges for elite students, the mundane and the provocative in teacher depictions on television, the view of gender and sexual orientation through a new lens, life in inner-city public schools, the culture of testing and dropping out. Every pre-service and classroom teacher should read this. It is also a valuable text for upper-division undergraduate and graduate-level courses in media and education as well. A Not So Typical Sixth Grader's Story Tylia L. Flores, 2024-03-01 Before he found his passion for writing, he was just an 11-year-old boy with buck teeth trying to find his way. Born with Cerebral Palsy, Austin Keller loves science, and someday he hopes to discover the cure for Cerebral Palsy. But as he enters middle school and deals with the everyday struggles of being a preteen with Cerebral Palsy, he soon finds himself in a pickle as he discovers he has a new passion that has always been there. He discovers he loves to write, and he finds his passion in writing stories and poetry. He starts to write every day and soon discovers that writing helps him to cope with his disability and the struggles he faces. Toni Morrison, Nobel Prize winner, wrote: Writing is really a way of thinking, not just feeling, but thinking about things that are disparate, unresolved, mysterious, problematic, or just sweet.
