Transcontinental Silk Road Strategies Timur Dadabaev, 2019-06-06 This book analyzes initiatives and concepts initiated by China Japan and South Korea the Republic of Korea toward Central Asia to ascertain their impact on regionalism and regional cooperation in Central Asia Using the case study of Uzbekistan the book focuses on the formation of the discourse of engagement with the region of Central Asia through the notion of the Silk Road narrative The author puts forward the prospects for engagement and cooperation in the region by analyzing initiatives such as the Eurasian Silk Road Diplomacy of Japan of 1997 the Shanghai Process by China the Korean corporate offensive and other so called Silk Road initiatives such as One Belt One Road OBOR or the Belt and Road Initiative BRI The book argues that material factors and interests of these states are not the only motivations for engagement with Central Asia The author suggests that cultural environment and identity act as additional behavioral incentives for the states cooperation as these factors create a space for actors in global politics The book deconstructs Chinese narratives and foreign policy toward smaller states and presents a more balanced account of Central Asian international relations by taking into account Japanese and South Korean approaches to Central Asia This book encourages wider theoretical discussions of Central Asian specific forms of cooperation and relationships It provides a timely analysis of Central Asian international relations and is a helpful reference for researchers and students in the fields of international relations security studies Asian politics global politics Central Asian Studies and Silk Road studies

Kurds in Dark Times Ayça Alemdaroglu, Fatma Müge Göçek, 2023-01-03 With an estimated population of 35 million Kurds are the largest ethnic group in the world without an independent state of their own Kurds constitute about 20 percent of Turkey the largest Kurdish population in the region The history of the Kurds in Turkey is marked by state violence against them and decades of conflict between the Turkish military and Kurdish fighters Although the continuous struggle of the Kurdish people is well known and the political actors involved in the conflict have received much attention an increasing wave of scholarship is being written from the vantage point of the Kurds themselves Alemdaroglu and Göçek's volume develops a fresh approach by moving away from top down Turkish nationalist macroanalyses to a microanalysis of how Kurds and Kurdistan as historical and ethnic categories were constructed from the bottom up Contributors look beyond the politics of state actors to examine how Kurdish workers women youth and political prisoners experience and resist marginalization exclusion and violence Kurds in Dark Times opens an essential window into the lives of Kurds by generating meaningful insights into the formal and informal ways of negotiating their power and place in Turkey and therefore it provides crucial perspectives for any endeavor to create peace and reconciliation in the country

Greece in Crisis Dimitris Tziouvas, 2017-08-30 Since 2010 Greece has been experiencing the longest period of austerity and economic downturn in its recent history Economic changes may be happening more rapidly and be more visible than the cultural effects of the crisis which are likely to take longer to become visible however in recent times both at home and abroad the Greek arts scene has been discussed mainly in terms of the crisis While there is no shortage of accounts of Greece's economic crisis by financial and political analysts the cultural impact of austerity has yet to be properly addressed This book analyses hitherto uncharted cultural aspects of the Greek economic crisis by exploring the connections between austerity and culture Covering literary artistic and visual representations of the crisis it includes a range of chapters focusing on different aspects of the cultural politics of austerity such as the uses of history and archaeology the brain drain and the Greek diaspora Greek cinema museums music festivals street art and literature as well as manifestations of how the crisis has led Greeks to rethink or question cultural discourses and conceptions of identity

Horan, 2018-12-15 This edited volume explores the discursive performative and mediated dimensions of contemporary political discourse The strengths of the volume are manifold it contains cutting edge interdisciplinary research on political discourses by international authors UK USA Italy Germany Austria Denmark in political science discourse linguistic and social interaction research The contributions represent a wide range of methodological approaches to political discourse analyzing a broad variety of genres some of which have been less analyzed to date for example Wikipedia articles in combination with their discussion pages or the interaction between politicians and voters in the constituency office of a British Member of Parliament The contributions also focus on political discourses of high and relevant topicality such as EU membership of Britain populism migration and xenophobia terrorism and narratives in international relations

Unpacking Metaphor-related Prepositions in Political Discourse Mokhtar Ounis, 2023-11-27 This book explores the context around why English prepositions are used in figurative language more frequently than nouns and verbs using corpus based evidence to examine the most often used prepositions and how they are employed and for what purpose While research on cognitive approaches to metaphor has significantly expanded in recent decades little attention has been paid to prepositions as vehicles of figurative language owing to their polysemous complex and inconsistent nature To bridge this gap Ounis introduces an innovative conceptual framework that integrates conceptual metaphor theory diachronic linguistics and discourse pragmatics Drawing upon an extensive corpus of American presidential inaugural addresses this book considers the linguistic conceptual pragmatic and contextual dimensions of English prepositions revealing the fascinating interplay between language culture and cognition This volume will be of interest to scholars in pragmatics metaphor studies English language rhetoric studies and historical linguistics

The Mobilities Paradigm Marcel Endres, Katharina

Manderscheid, Christophe Mincke, 2016-05-12 Over the last two decades the conceptualisation and empirical analysis of mobilities of people objects and symbols has become an important strand of social science Yet the increasing importance of mobilities in all parts of the social does not only happen as observable practices in the material world but also takes place against the background of changing discourses scientific theories and conceptualisations and knowledge Within the formation of these mobilities discourses the social sciences constitute a relevant actor Focussing on mobility as an object of knowledge from a Foucauldian perspective rather than a given entity within the historical contingency of movement this book asks How do discourses and ideologies structure the normative substance social meanings and the lived reality of mobilities What are the real world effects of on the will and the ability to be mobile And how do these lived realities in turn invigorate or interfere with certain discourses and ideologies of mobility

Critical Sexuality Studies, Lavender Languages, and Everyday Life Michelle

Marzullo,William L. Leap,2024-09-05 Critical Sexuality Studies CSS and Lavender Languages Linguistics LLL are leading modes of inquiry in two different fields of sexuality studies In this edited collection chapters reveal how these can be combined to produce a new approach to analyzing language use sexuality and gender and discourse on authority and power

The book demonstrates how together LLL and CSS iterate each other through their mutual concern with sexuality gender and power especially when considering the materiality of daily life Authors then compare CSS to other fields of sexuality studies to reveal commonalities and tensions that are addressed via the LLL based interventions exemplified in this volume The body of the book organizes examples of Lavender Languages projects around a four part CSS framework with an introductory essay for each section indicating the connections between the CSS theme and the LLL examples The volume concludes with reflections showing how CSS interests in sexuality and power benefits from LLL with its emphasis on socially focused studies of discourse and text Strengthening pathways to future knowledge making this book provides a detailed roadmap for scholarly and activist engagements in language centered critical sexuality studies 75 Years After Partition

Amit Ranjan, Farooq Sulehria, 2025-07-24 This book explores how the 1947 Partition of British India not only divided people and territories but also deepened cultural rifts in postcolonial India Pakistan and Bangladesh especially between Hindus and Muslims The colonial divide and rule strategy which intensified religious divides laid the foundation for ongoing tensions Even as the 75th anniversary of Partition approached in 2022 this cultural segregation remains prevalent Over the years mass media such as films press and television have significantly evolved in India Bangladesh and Pakistan playing a pivotal role in manufacturing disseminating and perpetuating the narrative of cultural differences based on religion These cultural platforms have gained even more influence with the rise of majoritarian nationalism in both India and Pakistan The chapters in this volume analyse how language cinema and textbooks contributed to the divide instead of bridging gaps and why unresolved questions from the Partition continue to affect the region The chapters cover the communalization of Hindi and Urdu how textbooks in India Bangladesh and Pakistan narrate Partition the role of mass media in India and Pakistan in presenting Partition and the portrayal of Partition in films across India Bangladesh and Pakistan This book is aimed at students researchers and scholars interested in postcolonial studies South Asian history cultural studies and media analysis The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of India Review Language for Specific Purposes

Giuliana Elena Garzone, Dermot Heaney, Giorgia Riboni, 2017-01-06 This volume brings together work by both well known scholars and emerging researchers in the various areas of Language for Specific Purposes LSP such as political legal medical and business discourse The volume is divided into three parts in order to align rather than separate three different but related aspects of LSP namely translation linguistic research and domain specific communication on the web Underlying all the contributions here is the growing awareness of the ever increasing multiformity of specialised communication and the ever wider social implications of the communicative situations in which it is embedded especially where it involves the need to move across languages cultures and modes as in translation and interpreting The contributions consistently bear witness to the need to review received notions pose new questions and explore fresh perspectives The picture that emerges is one of extreme complexity in which researchers into specifically linguistic aspects of LSPs and their translation across languages and media declare their awareness of the pressing need to come to terms with a wide range of social pragmatic intercultural and political factors above and beyond socio technical knowledge of the domains under investigation

Discourses of Denial Thomas Discenna, 2017-09-22 Discourses of Denial explores the myriad ways that the labor of those employed by universities is situated as somehow distinct from ordinary labor Focusing on a variety of sites where academic labor is discursively constructed in popular consciousness including among the professoriate itself its critics and detractors the unionization struggles of graduate students the invisibility of contingent academics and the resistance to the unionization of student athletes Merging Critical Rhetoric CR with Critical Discourse Analysis CDA this study examines myth that academic work is not the same as other labor Pason 2011 p 1786 The denial of academic labor functions to underwrite an attack on labor in all of its variations producing what Berardi 2009 calls a new kind of worker who values labor as the most interesting part of his or her life and therefore no longer opposes the prolongation of the working day but is actually ready to lengthen it out of personal choice and will p 79 The professoriate is therefore not a retrograde figure of more genteel times but the emblematic figure of late capitalism's transition to cognitive labor and with it an unceasing colonization of the human lifeworld

War Narratives in Post-Conflict Societies Michal Mochtak, 2024-02-29 This book studies war narratives and their role in the political arenas of post conflict societies with a focus on the former Yugoslavia How do politicians in postwar societies talk about the past war How do they discursively represent vulnerable social groups created by the conflict Does the nature of this representation depend on the politicians ideology personal characteristics or their record of combat service The book answers these questions by pairing natural language processing tools and large corpora of parliamentary debates collected in three southeast European post conflict societies Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Serbia Using the latest advances in computer science the book explores patterns in the war discourse of the political elites of these countries and discusses how politicians talk about war in terms of common narratives and shared frameworks Mapping over 20 years of parliamentary debates the book presents a new perspective on the role of the legacies of war in public space and develops theoretical arguments about reconciliation in post conflict societies The wars of the 1990s and the breakup of Yugoslavia have created three totally different settings for remembering the past conflicts in these countries despite their common history It is a story of victorious battles Croatia past grievances Bosnia Herzegovina and denial Serbia showing the different flavors of past wars in various national contexts that are symptomatic of many post conflict societies in different parts of the world This book will be of much interest to students of war and conflict studies southeastern European politics discourse analysis and international relations
