Reckoning with Change in Yucatán Jason Ramsey, 2023-11-30 Reckoning with Change in Yucatán engages with how best to look upon and respond to change arguing that this debate is an important arena for negotiating local belonging and a force of transformation in its own right For residents of Chunchucmil a historic rural community in Yucatán Mexico history is anything but straightforward Living in what is both a defunct 19th century hacienda estate and a vibrant Catholic pilgrimage site Chunchucmile os reckon past present and future in radically different ways For example while some use the aging estate buildings to weave a history of economic decline and push for revitalization by hotel developers others highlight the growing fame of the Virgin of the Rosary in the attached church and vow to defend the site from developer interference By exploring how past and future are channeled through changing built environments landscapes sacred relics and legal documents this ethnographic study details how the politics of change provide Chunchucmile os with a common language for debating commitments to place and each another in the present Against Western notions of History as a relatively coherent account of change the book suggests we reframe it as an ongoing performance that is always fractured democratic and morally tinged
