It's important to realize that no person is a complete person without having a purpose. The purpose of this person is defined by his or her relationship to the world. Being a person is not just a matter of being alive.

- As noted in the previous section, the evidence that the effects of the 1990s recession on the labor market were uneven is not in itself surprising. The fact that the recession hit the economy and the labor market unevenly is not surprising. The fact that the recession hit the economy and the labor market unevenly is not surprising.
