Religion Chapter 3 Study Sheet

Catholics are baptized members of the church led and guided by the pope and bishops.

Parishes are communities that worship and work together.

Faith is a gift from God that helps us to trust God and believe in him.

Worship means to give God thanks and praise.

A sacrament is a special sign given to us by Jesus.

Baptism: We become children of God and members of the Church. We receive the Holy Spirit for the first time.

Eucharist: The sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ. We receive Jesus himself in Holy Communion.

Confirmation: We are sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit and strengthened by it. We become stronger followers of Jesus.

Penance/Reconciliation: God forgives our sins. We tell our sins to the priest. We are given God's forgiveness and peace.

Anointing of the Sick: The sacrament for those who are sick or in danger of death. The priest prays that they may be healed in body, mind, and spirit.

Matrimony: A man and woman become husband and wife. They promise to love and be faithful to each other always.

Holy orders: A man becomes a deacon, a priest, or a bishop. He then serves the Church by leading and guiding God's people.

Jesus gave us the sacraments.

When we worship together we use the word Aleluia.

People shouted Hosanna as Jesus entered Jerusalem.

People waved palm branches as Jesus entered Jerusalem.

Multiple Choice. Bubble in the answer for each question.

pts each

13. As Jesus entered Jerusalem people shouted ____.

☐ Holy, Holy, Holy

Copyright Office, 1914 The Shamrock and the Cross Eileen P. Sullivan, 2016-03-15 In The Shamrock and the Cross Irish American Novelists Shape American Catholicism Eileen P Sullivan traces changes in nineteenth century American Catholic culture through a study of Catholic popular literature Analyzing more than thirty novels spanning the period from the 1830s to the 1870s Sullivan elucidates the ways in which Irish immigration which transformed the American Catholic population and its institutions also changed what it meant to be a Catholic in America In the 1830s and 1840s most Catholic fiction was written by American born converts from Protestant denominations after 1850 most was written by Irish immigrants or their children who created characters and plots that mirrored immigrants lives The post 1850 novelists portrayed Catholics as a community of people bound together by shared ethnicity ritual and loyalty to their priests rather than by shared theological or moral beliefs Their novels focused on poor and working class characters the reasons they left their homeland how they fared in the American job market and where they stood on issues such as slavery abolition and women s rights In developing their plots these later novelists took positions on capitalism and on race and gender providing the first alternative to the reigning domestic ideal of women Far more conscious of American anti Catholicism than the earlier Catholic novelists they stressed the dangers of assimilation and the importance of separate institutions supporting a separate culture Given the influence of the Irish in church institutions the type of Catholicism they favored became the gold standard for all American Catholics shaping their consciousness until well into the next century
