

A First Course in General Relativity

Bernard F Schutz

(2nd Edition, Cambridge University Press, 2009)

Solutions to Selected Exercises

(Version 1.0, November 2009)

To the user of these solutions:

This document contains solutions to many of the Exercises in the second edition of A First Course in General Relativity. The textbook offers an extensive collection of exercises, some of which prove results omitted from the text, or form the basis for later exercises, or provide the foundation for results in later chapters. Doing exercises is integral to the process of learning a subject as complex and conceptually challenging as general relativity. These solutions, therefore, are meant to help users of this book master exercises that they might have had difficulty with. It is assumed that an attempt has already been made at solving the problem!

Solutions are provided to those problems which might present particular conceptual challenges; those which require just routine algebra, and those which require computer solutions, are generally not included.

I hope you find the solutions helpful!

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
