The Beaver ,1928      Commercial America ,1929      Advertising and Consumer Culture in Ireland, 1922-1962 Stephanie Rains,2022-08-13 This book explores advertising and consumer culture as key aspects of everyday life and national culture in twentieth century Ireland It makes a particular argument that the presence of anti materialist rhetoric in some parts of Irish public life after Independence has obscured the existence of a lively consumer culture throughout the period as evident in the many advertisements which supported Irish newspapers and magazines the jingles broadcast on Irish radio and the neon advertising signs and billboards on Irish streets The book focuses on the development of the advertising industry itself and the sophisticated ways in which it worked to associate consumption with national pride It also considers the advertising of Irish homes and home appliances as an important focus of consumption and the targeting of Irish women as the principal consumers in those homes as well as publicity stunts and advertising in public space and the form and style of commercial broadcasting and sponsored programming from the earliest days of Irish radio It finishes with an examination of the opposite extremes of consumer abundance displayed in the annual Christmas advertising as opposed to the consumer culture response to shortages during World War Two

Bronchial Carcinoma Michael Bates,2013-03-14 In a condition of such complexity as bronchial carcinoma and at a time when the scientist s understanding of malignant disease is still incomplete it is inevitable that views within the medical profession will proliferate This book is an attempt to assemble these views in the light of 33 years of surgical experience and is intended for those specialists who will be concerned with the diagnosis and treatment of lung cancer in the foreseeable future The wide clinical experience of the contributing authors has enabled every aspect of this disease to be considered with emphasis being placed on diagnostic techniques such as CT scanning and fine needle transpleural biopsy as well as on the latest method of treatment by lasers Bronchial carcinoma remains the major cause of cancer death in the United Kingdom accounting for 60Jo of all deaths While the incidence has decreased slightly in the male population there has been an equivalent increase in the female population

Aesthetic Perceptions of Urban Environments Arundhati Virmani, 2021-09-30 To what extent do urban dwellers relate to their lived and imagined environment through aesthetic perceptions and aspirations This book approaches experiences of urban aesthetics not as an established framework defined by imposed norms or legislations but as the result of a continuous reflexive and proactive gaze a complex and deep engagement of the mind body and sensibilities It uses empirical studies ranging from China India to Western Europe Three axes are privileged The first considers urban everyday aesthetic experiences in the long term as a historical production from medieval Italy to a future imagined by science fiction The second examines the impact of aestheticizing everyday material realities in neighbourhoods and the tensions and conflicts these engender around urban commons Finally the third axis considers these relationships as aesthetic inequalities exacerbated in a new age of urban development The book combines local and transnational scales with an interdisciplinary approach bringing together historians sociologists cultural geographers anthropologists architects and contemporary art curators They illustrate the importance of combining different social science methods and functional perspectives to study such complex social and cultural realities as cities This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of humanities and social sciences cultural and urban studies architecture and political geography
