 control by violent jihadist groups using a comparative perspective The book argues that in many parts of the world the connection between a state and the control over territory is not as close as presented by conventional political maps and therefore it is necessary to analyse the territoriality of non state actors as well Based on a variety of case studies the work looks at different levels of connection between the violent Islamist groups and territory dividing them into non territorial semi territorial and territorial groups While the majority of the cases are located in the Middle East Islamic State Al Qaeda Al Qaeda at the Arabian Peninsula Ha yat Tahrir al Sham Hamas and Hezbollah the book also draws cases from Africa groups in the western Sahel Al Shabaab and Boko Haram South Asia Taliban and East Asia Abu Sayyaf By providing in depth understanding of their respective approaches to territory the book identifies the specifics of each group s territoriality while also drawing more general conclusions This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and political violence radical Islam Middle Eastern studies and International Relations in general
