Vital Christian Community Philip

Brochard,Alissabeth Newton,2022-09-20 Twelve characteristics of healthy Christian communities and the congregational and personal practices that develop them Congregations have been the bedrock of mainline Christian life and practice for centuries but in recent years many have dwindled in energy and impact Leaders conclude that change is needed that they can t keep applying the same models and practices that have served in the past but no longer seem to work At a time when all kinds of institutions are being buffeted by swift and strong cultural forces Brochard and Newton believe the congregation to be a primary site for the transformation of individuals communities and the world and that the measures for congregational vitality begin with health faithfulness and effectiveness as local expressions of the Church The authors offer readers insights into developing a sense of purpose building trust encouraging curiosity becoming more collaborative appreciating productive conflict and other vital skills

Story-Shaped Worship Robbie F. Castleman,2013-04-03

In Story Shaped Worship Robbie Castleman attempts nothing less than to uncover the fundamental shape of worship Right worship doesn t require a traditionalist return to earlier forms of church she argues but a fresh response to God in light of the revealed patterns of worship we find in the Bible and church history

The Art of Experiment Rolf Hughes,Rachel Armstrong,2020-12-20

A handbook for navigating our troubled and precarious times intended to help readers imagine and make their world anew In search of new knowledge practices that can help us make the world livable again this book takes the reader on a journey across time from the deep past to the unfolding future The authors search beyond human knowledge to establish negotiated partnerships with forms of knowledge within the planet itself examining how we have manipulated these historically through an anthropocentric focus The book explores the many different kinds of knowledge and the diversity of instruments needed to invoke and actuate the potency of human and nonhuman agencies Four key phases in our ways of knowing are identified material strengthening reconfiguring and extending which are exemplified through case studies that take the form of worlding experiments This pioneering work will inspire architects artists and designers as well as students teachers and researchers across arts and design disciplines
