Regional Cooperation in South Asia Sumana Bandyopadhyay, André Torre, Paulo Casaca, Tomaz Dentinho, 2017-08-28 This book highlights various challenges and opportunities for regional cooperation and development in South Asia In light of the ongoing globalization process the contributors investigate how socio economic developments are changing the spatial organization of production as well as the profile of cities and landscapes are stimulating the creation of maritime terrestrial and aerial channels and are putting increasing pressures on natural and environmental resources The book is divided into four parts The first part analyses the increasing intensity of regional trade migration and investment flows the second focuses on channels and adapted spaces The third part addresses sustainability and natural resources while the fourth highlights institutional issues

The China-Pakistan Economic Corridor of the Belt and Road Initiative Siegfried O. Wolf, 2019-06-20 This book focuses on the implementation of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor CPEC a multi billion dollar infrastructure development project intended to connect Asia with Europe the Middle East and Africa By introducing a new analytical approach to the study of economic corridors it gauges the anticipated economic and geopolitical impacts on the region and discusses whether the CPEC will serve as a pioneer project for future regional cooperation between and integration of sub national regions such as Balochistan Khyber Pakhtunkhwa the Federally Administered Tribal Areas and Gilgit Baltistan Further it explores the interests expectations and policy approaches of both Chinese and Pakistani local and central governments with regard to the CPEC s implementation Given its scope the book will appeal to regional and spatial sciences scholars as well as social scientists interested in the regional impacts of economic corridors It also offers valuable information for policymakers in countries participating in the Belt and Road Initiative or other Chinese supported development projects

South Africa's Post-Apartheid Military Lindy Heineken, 2020-01-01 This timely book examines how the South African National Defence Force has adapted to the country s new security political and social environment since 1994 In South Africa s changed political state how has civilian control of the military been implemented and what does this mean for defence in a democracy This book presents an overview of the security environment how the mission focus of the military has changed and the implications for force procurement force preparation force employment and force sustainability The author addresses other issues such as the effect of integrating former revolutionary soldiers into a professional armed force the effect of affirmative action on meritocracy recruitment and retention military veterans looking at the difficulties they face in reintegrating back into society and finding gainful employment gender equality and mainstreaming the rise of military unions and why a confrontational instead of a more corporatist approach to labour relations has emerged HIV AIDS and the consequences this holds for the military in terms of its operational effectiveness In closing the author highlights key events that have caused the SANDF to become lost in transition and transformation spelling out some lessons learned The conclusions she draws are pertinent for the future of defence security and civil military relations of countries around the world China's Global Rebalancing and the New Silk Road B. R. Deepak, 2018-01-10 This collaborative volume discusses the One Belt One Road or the New Silk Road initiative of Chinese President Xi Jinping from the perspectives of the Belt and Road countries This initiative has been viewed as a re globalization drive by China in the backdrop of financial crisis of the West and the latter s increasingly protectionist tendencies of late Rather than rebalancing towards a certain region this is supposed to be China s global rebalancing aimed at inclusiveness and a win win partnership The initiative has raised hopes as well as suspicions about China s goals and intentions that is whether this is in sync with China s foreign policy goals such as multipolarity no hegemonic aspirations and common security or if this is an antidote to the U S foreign policy goals in the region and China s ambition to realizing its long term vision for Asian regional and global order In this volume a galaxy of eminent academics from India China Pakistan Uzbekistan Germany and Southeast Asia have critically analysed every aspect of this mammoth project including the six major economic corridors identified by China for policy coordination infrastructure connectivity unimpeded trade monetary circulation and people to people exchanges The authors have interpreted China s peripheral regional as well as global diplomacy both over land and sea This topical volume is of interest to scholars and students of Asian studies China studies Asian history development studies international relations and international trade

Ex-Combatants' Voices John D. Brewer, Azrini Wahidin, 2021-02-02 This book develops the discourse on the experiences of ex combatants and their transition from war to peace from the perspective of scholars across disciplines Ex combatants are often overlooked and ignored in the post conflict search for memory and understanding resulting in their voice being excluded or distorted This collection seeks to disclose something of the lived experience of ex combatants who have made the transition from war to peace to help to understand some of the difficulties they have encountered in social and emotional reintegration in the wake of combat These include motivations and mobilizations to participation in military struggle the material difficulties experienced in social reintegration after the war the emotional legacies of conflict the discourses they utilize to reconcile their past in a society moving forward from conflict toward peace and ex combatants subsequent engagement or not in peacebuilding It also examines the contributions that former combatants have made to post conflict compromise reconciliation and peacebuilding It focusses on male non state actors women child soldiers and unusually state veterans and complements previous volumes which captured the voices of victims in Northern Ireland South Africa and Sri Lanka This volume speaks to those working in the areas of sociology criminology security studies politics and international relations and professionals working in social justice and human rights NGOs Rethinking Humanitarian Intervention in the 21st Century Aiden

Warren, 2017-06-02 Since the end of the Cold War humanitarian interventions have continued to evolve and respond to a wide range of political crises These insightful essays focus on the challenges associated with interventions when facing conflict and human rights violations unmitigated systematic violence state re building human mobility and dislocation Each chapter is linked to the rest through three defining themes that permeate the book the evolution of humanitarian interventions in a global era the limits of sovereignty and the ethics of interventions and the politics of post intervention re building and humanitarian engagement The authors incorporate a variety of case studies including Kosovo Timor Leste Syria Libya and Iraq and examine the complexity of interventions across their different dimensions including relevant doctrines such as R2P Use of Force and Human Security Forging New Partnerships, Breaching New Frontiers Rejaul Karim

Laskar, 2023-02-06 The ten years of UPA rule has been a crucial passage in the evolution of India s foreign policy and yet this period has been until now curiously understudied This book bridges this puzzling gap in the literature Terrorism

Revisited Paulo Casaca, Siegfried O. Wolf, 2017-06-24 This book develops a conceptual approach to understanding the face of contemporary terrorism as manifested in the recent attacks in Mumbai and Paris By analyzing the historical evolution of terrorism and by offering case studies on different forms of terrorism in South Asia and elsewhere the authors shed new light on the political strategies behind terrorist attacks as well as on the motivations of terrorists The case studies explore the redefinition of terrorism by the Iranian Islamic revolution the spread of terrorism in Sunni Islam the national jihadism in Pakistan anti Semitism as a main factor behind fanatical terrorist ideologies and the case of the Tamil Tigers Redefining terrorism is a dynamic story that provides readers with intrigue and clarity to the ever evolving threats that we face as a nation and as a global community The authors masterfully navigate through the intricate maze of global terrorism bringing an overwhelming dose of reality through his usage of real life gripping experiences Through this book military and intelligence analysts and policy makers alike will gain first hand knowledge about not only what the world looks like today but a glimpse into the future US Congressman Pete Sessions In Different Times Ian van der Waag, Albert

Grundlingh, 2019-11-15 This is the first attempt to bring together diverse scholars using different lenses to study South Africa s Border War As a book it is critical in approach provides deeper reflection and focuses specifically on the SADF experience of the war The result is a more complex picture of the war s dynamics and its legacies Although South Africa is a vastly different country today the study of the Border War opens a range of questions also relevant to contemporary deployments such as in Lesotho 1998 and the Central African Republic 2013 It includes the debate on participation in foreign conflicts on the deployment design and preparation of appropriate modern armed forces and their use as foreign policy instruments in far off theatres on military planning and as the historical controversies regarding the battles at Cuito Cuanavale and Banguui illustrate on the interface between foreign campaigning and domestic politics
