Patents Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1993 Consumer Affairs and Customer Care Sri Ram Khanna,Savita Hanspal,2020-09-21 The subject of this book explains the social framework of consumer rights and legal framework of protecting consumer rights that has evolved in India over the last three decades It also explains the momentous changes in Indian consumer markets over this period as a result of economic liberalisation and provides an understanding of the problems consumers face in markets and the consumer detriment there from It analyses the buying behavior of consumers as well as the phenomena of consumer complaints and the processes and systems to address them The development of the consumer jurisprudence in settling consumer disputes in consumer courts under the Consumers Protection Act of 1986 and 2019 is examined in detail Leading cases are used to explain important concepts It also addresses the role played by quality and standardization in the market place and the roles of different agencies in establishing product and service standards The student should be able to comprehend the business firms interface with consumers and the consumer related regulatory and business environment for major consumer industries of India Business Today ,1997

The Evolution of European Manufacturing Industries Bolesław Domański,Grzegorz Micek,Robert Guzik,Krzysztof Gwosdz,Arkadiusz Kocaj,2024-08-29 The book provides a picture of the increasing significance of Central Europe and especially Poland in global production networks discussing the underlying economic social and political factors The key question it answers is to what extent the growth of production and exports results in industrial upgrading towards the manufacturing of more sophisticated high value added products new technologies and the development of non production functions especially design and advanced service capabilities The book shows that Central European manufacturing no longer exhibits the typical features of production activities in the periphery in particular low density and diversity low productivity narrow specialisation in low value added activities and poor local linkages hence limited local value creation and value capture There is still dependence on foreign controlled enterprises in several sectors and limited product innovation which remains a major weakness Further the book assesses the social consequences of the ongoing development of manufacturing capabilities in Poland and its impact on employment conditions including the quality of jobs and level of wages The authors provide insight into relationships between globalisation processes place specific attributes and current economic policies and as such the book will be of interest to academics policy makers and other stakeholders interested in both peripheral economies and core countries and representing various international organisations dealing with economic transition and development

Consumer Good Brands in China Judith Frey, 2004-04-29 Inhaltsangabe Abstract Against the backdrop of the Western world's saturated and fatigued consumer goods markets the evolving of China's new consumerism is probably among the most thrilling developments of our days While the run of foreign companies for China is going on uninterruptedly and many are still struggling with rudimentary difficulties like distribution or production planning the market is already entering the next stage of competition the competition of brands This thesis lays out how foreign Western consumer good brands need to be developed in the PR China to ensure long term market success and a sustainable strong standing with the Chinese consumers In a first step this author shortly analyses the situation of existing Chinese and foreign brands in terms of overall market conditions market trends domestic or foreign brand dominance and factors for success or failure A second step specifies relevant urban Chinese consumer groups according to socio demographic factors the consumers general living conditions lifestyles and perspectives A preface on the Chinese system of values delivers the background for further understanding of this paragraph Subsequently the core part of this thesis is concerned with brand positioning branding and brand communication as integral elements of brand building It introduces modern status quo concepts from Western brand building practice for each element With reference to the findings from the preceding brand and consumer analyses this author discusses in detail how companies can implement and adapt these elements and concepts to the requirements of the Chinese context Promising options as well as possible challenges and risks are pointed out accordingly Relevant examples from the current brand scene in China such as Wall s Lenovo BMW Haier or Samsung illustrate these recommendations and suggest creative starting points for further exploration Major findings of this thesis are that Western brands need to maintain strong symbolic values and that comprehensive brand building based on brand substance and personality may be the key for sustainable success Particular focus is to be on durable close brand consumer relationships A main challenge for Western brands will be the adaptation of brand communication to the local consumer requirements Furthermore this thesis supports the assumption that the Chinese market must be broken up into regional markets and that the Astrad ,1994
