Tell us about a time when you had a belief or idea challenged.

- Have you studied abroad? Visited a foreign country on a family trip? Had a thought-provoking discussion with a teacher, religious leader, or friend? Think about an experience or a moment that challenged – or even changed – one of your beliefs or ideas. Explain what your original understanding of the idea was, when that idea was challenged, and how you felt about it afterward. Scholarship providers are interested in seeing reflection and growth, so expanding on every detail, including where you were, who you were with, and what you were feeling, can help tell your story in your essay.

What is your greatest strength?

- If you're a good writer, write how much you enjoyed your high school English class or what your strategy is for writing your scholarship essays. If you enjoy performing, give an anecdote about helping others overcome stage fright. If you excel at math, share this talent and how it has had a positive impact on your life, or how you use it to help others. Whatever your strength is, be specific and give examples.
